

whose Government is a Party to this Agreement as the Government of a State sending forces to Korea pursuant to the United Nations Resolutions.

- (d) "United Nations forces" means those forces of the land, sea or air armed services of the sending States which are sent to engage in action pursuant to the United Nations Resolutions.
- (e) "Members of the United Nations forces" means personnel on active duty belonging to the United Nations forces when such persons are in Japan.
- (f) "Civilian component" means the civilian persons of the nationality of any sending State who are in the employ of, serving with, or accompanying the United Nations forces when such persons are in Japan, but excludes persons who are ordinarily resident in Japan.
- (g) "Dependents" means the following persons, when such persons are in Japan:
  - (i) Spouse, and children under 21, of members of the United Nations forces or of the civilian components;
  - (ii) Parents, and children over 21, of members of the United Nations forces or of the civilian components, if dependent for over half their support upon such members.

ARTICLE II

It is the duty of the United Nations forces as well as members of such forces and of the civilian components, and their dependents to respect the law of Japan and to abstain from any activity inconsistent with the spirit of this Agreement, and, in particular, from any political activity in Japan. The authorities of the sending States and the Commander-in-Chief, United Nations Command, shall take appropriate measures to this end.

ARTICLE III

1. Subject to the provisions of this Article, the Government of Japan grants permission to members of the United Nations forces and of the civilian components, and their dependents to enter into and depart from Japan for the purpose of this Agreement. The United Nations Command shall appropriately notify the Government of Japan of the number of persons entering and departing, the date of entry and departure, the object of entry, and the expected duration of stay.

2. Members of the United Nations forces shall be exempt from Japanese laws and regulations on passports and visas. Members of the United Nations forces and of the civilian components, and their dependents shall be exempt from Japanese laws and regulations on registration and control of aliens, but shall not be considered as acquiring any right to permanent residence or domicile in the territory of Japan.

3. Upon entry into and departure from Japan members of the United Nations forces shall be in possession of the following documents:

- (a) personal identity card showing name, date of birth, rank and number, service, and photograph; and
- (b) individual or collective travel order certifying to the status of the individual or group as a member or members of the United Nations forces and to the travel ordered.
