

e) determine, bearing in mind the objectives of this Convention, the general policy of the Organization and lay down the conditions upon which the general policy is to be operationally and administratively implemented;

f) submit to the members of the Support Group, within a reasonable time after the termination of each operational year, a report relating to the activities of the Organization for that year, including the financial statement of the Organization, and the report of the external auditors thereon.

3. The Support Group shall periodically cause an independent evaluation to be conducted of the Organization's performance in achieving its objectives. The Support Group shall determine in conjunction with the Board of Trustees the terms of reference and composition of the team responsible for carrying out this evaluation.

A first evaluation shall be conducted after the Organization will have been in existence for three years.

ARTICLE 15
