

3 5036 20040275 1

the Government of the United States and the Department of the Treasury and the Internal Revenue Service have entered into an agreement to provide for the exchange of information between the United States and the United Kingdom in respect of income tax and capital gains tax.

The agreement provides that the United States will provide information to the United Kingdom in respect of the income tax and capital gains tax of United States citizens and residents who are taxpayers in the United Kingdom.

The agreement also provides that the United States
will provide information to the United Kingdom
in respect of the income tax and capital gains tax
of United States citizens and residents who are
taxpayers in the United Kingdom.

The agreement also provides that the United States
will provide information to the United Kingdom
in respect of the income tax and capital gains tax
of United States citizens and residents who are
taxpayers in the United Kingdom.

The agreement also provides that the United States
will provide information to the United Kingdom
in respect of the income tax and capital gains tax
of United States citizens and residents who are
taxpayers in the United Kingdom.

60984 81800