

legislation of Greece shall be considered as a year which is creditable under the Canada Pension Plan.

3. For purposes of determining entitlement to the payment of a benefit under the legislation of Greece:
 - (a) a calendar year which is a creditable period under the Canada Pension Plan shall be considered as 300 days which are creditable under the legislation of Greece; and
 - (b) a calendar month which is a creditable period under the Old Age Security Act of Canada and which is not part of a creditable period under the Canada Pension Plan shall be considered as 25 days which are creditable under the legislation of Greece.

Article X

Periods under the Legislation of a Third State

If a person is not entitled to the payment of a benefit on the basis of the creditable periods under the legislation of the Parties, totalized as provided in Article IX, the entitlement of that person to the payment of that benefit shall be determined by totalizing these periods and creditable periods under the legislation of a third State with which both Parties are bound by social security instruments which provide for the totalizing of periods.

Article XI

Minimum Period to be Totalized

Notwithstanding any other provision of this Agreement, if the total duration of the creditable periods accumulated by a person under the legislation of a Party is less than one year and if, taking into account only those periods, no right to a benefit exists under that legislation, the competent institution of that Party
