

The purpose of this amendment is to provide that railway employees, who have been employed as a result of changes incidental to a railway, shall be compensated by that railway for the cost of retraining themselves with new skills that are essential in the labor market; for the cost of removal expenses to a new job; pension contribution for early retirement. It is the better part of railway compensation as the Board deems best for the protection of the discharged employee.

A secondary amendment which the change contemplated would be to amend the Act in respect of the following:

1. To amend the Act in respect of the following:

2. To amend the Act in respect of the following:

3. To amend the Act in respect of the following:

The Board has considered the amendments proposed and has concluded that they are in the public interest and should be adopted.

The Board has also considered the amendments proposed and has concluded that they are in the public interest and should be adopted.

Amendment to the Act in respect of the following:

The Board has considered the amendments proposed and has concluded that they are in the public interest and should be adopted.

Amendment to the Act in respect of the following:

The Board has considered the amendments proposed and has concluded that they are in the public interest and should be adopted.

The Board has also considered the amendments proposed and has concluded that they are in the public interest and should be adopted.

The Board has also considered the amendments proposed and has concluded that they are in the public interest and should be adopted.

Amendment to the Act in respect of the following:

The Board has considered the amendments proposed and has concluded that they are in the public interest and should be adopted.

Amendment to the Act in respect of the following:

The Board has considered the amendments proposed and has concluded that they are in the public interest and should be adopted.

The Board has also considered the amendments proposed and has concluded that they are in the public interest and should be adopted.

The Board has also considered the amendments proposed and has concluded that they are in the public interest and should be adopted.

The Board has also considered the amendments proposed and has concluded that they are in the public interest and should be adopted.

The Board has also considered the amendments proposed and has concluded that they are in the public interest and should be adopted.