

Royal Assent

Not only has the session been long, it has also been at times pretty arduous. You must realize what an extraordinary experience it has been for a relatively inexperienced member to perform the functions of Deputy Speaker of the house and to act as committee chairman.

At all events, I am still alive and it is surely due to the assistance you have given me, Mr. Speaker, and to the generosity shown to me by all party leaders.

I thank all members for their co-operation and their kindness towards me. I have no doubt made mistakes but with time I shall try to improve.

(Text):

To all I wish to say thank you very much for the generosity and I hope that next year the Deputy Speaker will know a little more and will be better prepared.

Mr. C. E. Rea (Spadina): Mr. Speaker, may I thank hon. members for their very kind and generous words. It is only with their co-operation that a chairman is able to discharge his sometimes rather hard duties. May I also thank the clerks at the table for their good advice and their kind words when needed.

Mr. Speaker, through you may I thank so many hon. members who inquired from time to time about the progress of my knee after my accident. In that regard may I say I have had a nibble from an unnamed football team.

Mr. Speaker: It is agreed that the sitting be suspended pending word from the other place?

Mr. Winch: At the call of the bell?

Mr. Speaker: Yes.

Some hon. Members: Agreed

Mr. Speaker: Then the sitting is now suspended.
