

Parliament

amination of the estimates by the committee is a waste of time. How can hon. members over there continue to kid themselves when the reputation of parliament is the way it is going when their party is going down the drain? How can they go there and say the Canadian people think this is okay? Institutions are very difficult to reform internally, and certainly difficult to reform with that group over there.

The last point I want to make, and I want to make it very early, is that we are here as trustees of the money of the people of Canada. We have a fiduciary obligation which is not being fulfilled and which cannot be fulfilled with the rules as they are and the way that committees operate in Canada. This is an indictment of this government over the last 15 years. It is an indictment hon. members over there will have to live with. It is an indictment hon. members again that what we have here is a matter of principle, that when we destroy our institutions, as they have been trying to do, we are in great trouble.

Some hon. Members: Hear, hear!

The Acting Speaker (Mr. Ethier): Order, please. It is my duty, pursuant to Standing Order 58(9), to interrupt the proceedings at this time and put the question on the motion. The question is on the motion of the hon. member for Yukon (Mr. Nielsen). Is it the pleasure of the House to adopt the motion?

Some hon. Members: Agreed.

Some hon. Members: No.

The Acting Speaker (Mr. Ethier): All those in favour will please say yea.

Some hon. Members: Yea.

The Acting Speaker (Mr. Ethier): All those opposed will please say nay.

Some hon. Members: Nay.

The Acting Speaker (Mr. Ethier): In my opinion the nays have it.

And more than five members having risen:

The Acting Speaker (Mr. Ethier): Call in the members.

The House divided on the motion (Mr. Nielsen) which was defeated on the following division:
