

at the slowest possible pace which means getting away from Toronto for September.

He is so perfectly healthy in all other ways that the doctor assures us that a complete recovery is practically certain, though naturally we shall have to guard from that which might put too severe a strain on the heart.

The weather has been good, so far, not a day too hot and our race horses have given