

X.—The Treasurer shall furnish a true statement of all receipts and disbursements, whenever called upon so to do by the President and Council; and shall present at the Annual Meeting a report and account of all the business connected with the Association, which has passed through his hands.

XI.—The Secretary shall attend the meetings of the Association and Council, and enter the minutes of each in a book for that purpose; he shall notify the Council, individually, of all such meetings; he shall summons all General Quarterly and Special Meetings in such way as may be directed by the President; he shall receive all donations of money, and all dues, and pay them over as soon as practicable to the Treasurer; he shall receive all donations of books and otherwise, and keep an account of them; he shall keep the keys of the premises of the Association; he shall order all matters relative to the business of the Association, as directed by the President and Council; he shall present a report at the Annual Meeting of the general proceedings of the Association during the past year; he shall receive for his services the sum of ———, as soon as the funds at the disposal of the Association shall warrant—until which time he shall be styled Honorary Secretary, and may occasionally call upon the Council, or any of its members, to lighten his labours.

---

[Books of Enrolment will be open at Mr. Wm. Gossip's, 8, Granville street. As soon as the Association numbers 200 members, it will begin its work. Under a firm impression that the objects set forth will be hailed with gladness by Churchmen generally, the Committee invite your co-operation and assistance, and ask you to circulate this pamphlet amongst your fellow Churchmen, with a view to engage their countenance and support.]

Signed in the name and on behalf of the Committee.

WM. GOSSIP, Chmn.