

CHAP. XII.—Comprehensive Views—To Supply the Russian Fur Establishment—An Agent Sent to Russia—Project of an Annual Ship—The Beaver Fitted Out—Her Equipment and Crew—Instructions to the Captain—The Sandwich Islands—Rumors of the Fate of the Tonquin—Precautions on Reaching the Mouth of the Columbia 135

CHAP. XIII.—Active Operations at Astoria—Various Expeditions Fitted Out—Robert Stuart and a Party Destined for New York—Singular Conduct of John Day—His Fate—Piratical Pass and Hazardous Portage—Rattlesnakes—Their Abhorrence of Tobacco—Arrival among the Wallah-Wallahs—Purchase of Horses—Departure of Stuart and his Band for the Mountains 142

CHAP. XIV.—Route of Mr. Stuart—Dreary Wilds—Thirsty Travelling—A Grove and Streamlet—The Blue Mountains—A Fertile Plain with Rivulets—Sulphur Spring—Route along Snake River—Rumors of White Men—The Snake and his Horse—A Snake Guide—A Midnight Decampment—Unexpected Meeting with Old Comrades—Story of Trappers' Hardships—Salmon Falls—A Great Fishery—Mode of Spearing Salmon—Arrival at the Caldron Linn—State of the Caches—New Resolution of the Three Kentucky Trappers. 154

CHAP. XV.—The Snake River Deserts—Scanty Fare—Bewildered Travellers—Prowling In-