

The following officers of the Royal Navy, who have been employed in the search after Franklin, and who are now absent from London, have previously expressed themselves to be favorable to the final expedition above recommended :—

Captains Sir JAMES C. ROSS, and Sir EDWARD BELCHER; Commodore KELLETT;
Captains AUSTIN,
BJRD,
OMANNEY,
Sir ROBERT M'CLURE, SHERARD OSBORN, INGLEFIELD,

Captains MAGUIRE, M'CLINTOCK, and
RICHARDS;
Commanders ALDRICH,
MECHAM,
TROLLOPE, and GRESSWELL;
Lieutenants HAMILTON
and PIM.

RELIG

long

Wi

Two

ing up

A un

'Christ

ham G

places,

tament

Two

let; an

cloth, w

26 pie

of thin e

by 6 inc

Piece

roll of charges

man's bl

part of

piece of bullet, a

of stout

small b

leather,

sheath f

of shot).

The s twist or small gr

Two s

stick pip

a seama

glasses o

silver p