

Solemn nocturnal sounds of the wilderness—An Indian's (alleged) device against the wolves—How to escape from a bear—Lures for bears and wolves—The broken bottle—Uncomfortable result—Best mode of fighting Bruin—Successful defence with fists alone—Escape from a panther—The animal killed by an idiot 278

CHAPTER XXIV.

Nature of land about Goderich and on the Grand river—Rice Lake and Peterborough—Soil near Toronto and in the Niagara and western districts—Fever and ague districts—Danger of these complaints much over-stated—Other complaints few and easily managed—Misrepresentations as to Canadian climate—Its actual comparative mildness—Winter dresses—Buffalo coats needless—Stoves and open fire-places—Cost of fuel in cities—Firewood to be sawn—Mode of saving labour 297

CHAPTER XXV.

Taxes and government of Canada—Upper and lower Houses—"Responsible government"—Qualification for magistrates and members of both houses—Mistaken conservative generosity—"Liberal" illiberality—Dismissal of Mr. Ferres—His admirable "letters"—Dutch and German settlers the ready tools of demagogues—Payment of rebels—Proposed remedies for radical misrule—Admirable policy of Sir Francis Head in the rebellion—Future political prospects of Canada 306

CHAPTER XXVI.

Means of education—Private seminaries—Country schools—Support for schoolmasters—District grammar-schools—Proposed robbery of the church for support of schools—Clergy reserves—Original grant undoubtedly for the Church of England—The

sects o
reserve
the mar
refused allowed posing o
Colborn
notwith
society—
contribu
clergy

Nova Sco
boarding
and othe
to a cler
Brunswi
of ladies
to the
in which Party of

Communi
—Steam
United
of whit
river—
fall in t
Magnifi
The bir
—Grou