

CONTENTS.

	PAGE		PAGE
PREFATORY NOTE	iii	(14) The Quebec Journal d'Instruction Publique	37
INTRODUCTORY REMARKS	1	(15) Hon. P. J. O. Chauveau, LL.D., in L'Instruction Publique au Canada	37
PART I.—THE INTERNATIONAL EXHIBITIONS OF 1867 AND 1873	1	PART VII—OFFICIAL AWARDS TO THE ONTARIO EDUCATION DEPARTMENT	38
1. The Paris Exhibition of 1867	1	1. General Award, group, Education and Science	38
2. The Vienna Exhibition of 1873	3	2. Collective Exhibit Award [Special]	39
i. The general scheme of the Exhibition	3	3. Award of Gold Medal by Canadian Commission	39
ii. The various National Educational Exhibits	4	4. Award of a Bronze Medal by American Commission	39
PART II—THE CENTENNIAL EXHIBITION AT PHILADELPHIA, 1876	8	PART VIII—LIST OF CANADIAN EXHIBITORS IN THE DEPARTMENT OF EDUCATION AND SCIENCE	40
1. Efforts made to promote its success ..	9	PART IX—EXCURSION OF INSPECTORS, TEACHERS AND FRIENDS OF EDUCATION IN ONTARIO TO THE EXHIBITION	42
PART III—PROCEEDINGS OF THE EDUCATION DEPARTMENT OF ONTARIO	10	PART X—SKETCH OF THE EDUCATIONAL INSTITUTIONS IN ONTARIO, BY THE HON. ADAM CROOKS, Q.C., M.P.P.	44
PART IV—THE ONTARIO EDUCATIONAL EXHIBIT, AS SET UP AT PHILADELPHIA ..	12	1. Public and High Schools	45
PART V—THE CHARACTER AND SPECIALTIES OF OUR EXHIBIT	13	2. Schools, Colleges and University, provincially endowed and subject to the control of the Provincial Government	49
1. The special characteristics of the Exhibit	13	3. Provincial Institutions for special classes, maintained and managed by the Provincial Government	50
2. Brief descriptions of the twenty-six classes embraced in it	16	4. Institutions and Societies partly aided by or under Governmental supervision	51
PART VI—OPINIONS OF THE PRESS AND OF STRANGERS AS TO THE VALUE OF THE ONTARIO EDUCATIONAL EXHIBIT	24	5. Schools, Colleges, and Universities not of a Provincial character	51
(1) Of Augustus Morris, Esq., Executive Commissioner, New South Wales	25	6. Institutions partly Educational and Reformatory	52
(2) Of M. Buisson, Chairman, French Education Commission	25	PART XI—THE EDUCATIONAL EXHIBITS OF VARIOUS STATES AND COUNTRIES AT PHILADELPHIA	53
I. Opinions of American Press and Educationists:		1. The State of Pennsylvania—Brief sketch of Education in the State	54
(1) Of Hon. Ellis A. Apgar, State Superintendent, New Jersey	27	2. The Kingdom of Sweden—Brief sketch of Education in the kingdom	56
(2) Of Hon. J. P. Wickersham, LL.D., State Superintendent of Pennsylvania	28	3. The Empire of Russia—Educational Depository and Museum—Brief sketch of Education in Russia—Primary and Secondary Education—Universities—Expenditures	62
(3) Of New York Tribune , Mrs. R. H. Davis (not R. H. Dana)	29	4. The Swiss Confederation—State of Education in Switzerland	68
(4) Of New York School Journal —Ontario at the Centennial	30	5. The Kingdom of Belgium—Sketch of Education—Primary Instruction—Intermediate—Superior—Special	69
(5) Of Philadelphia Press —Example for the United States	30	6. The Empire of Japan—Introduction of learning—Great old Schools—Modern Education—Origin of Education Department—System of Education—Library, Museum—Present state of Education—Income and Expenditure—Drawing Schools—Technical instruction—Popu-
(6) Of Philadelphia Herald —Plans pursued in Canada	31
(7) Of Philadelphia Press —Object Lesson Teaching	33
(8) Of American Publishers Weekly —Educational Book Display	34
(9) Of Le Courier des Etats-Unis —Canadian and American Education	34
(10) Of Buffal Christian Advocate —Ontario in advance	34
(11) Of Delaware Washington —Display from Ontario	34
II. Comments of the Canadian Press:
(12) The Toronto Globe	35
(13) The Toronto Mail	36		