

VARIANCE IN PLEADINGS.—Continued.

- in charges of arson, 429.
- in charges of theft, 429.
- in libel, by omission of explanatory words, fatal, 430-431.
- in slander, 431.
- proof of all the words not always necessary, 426.
- rules as to, 425-426.
- where imputation the same with or without, 427.

VENUE, 329-331.

- change of, rules as to, 329.
- grounds for change of, 329-330.
- in actions against newspapers, 331.
- in Quebec, 331.
- plaintiff may select, except when restricted by rule or statute, 329.

VERDICT

- against the weight of evidence, 578, 709.
- death of party before, 485.
- for improper or small damages, setting aside, 786.
- in his favour moved against by plaintiff, 697.
- motion against, where verdict in party's favour, 787.
- must be general, 662.
- new trial for objection to general verdict, 800-810.
- on whole matter in issue, jury may give, 665.
- setting aside, grounds of application for, 789.
- subject to reserved questions of law, 148.
- the allegations in the pleadings where verdict moved against, 347.
- when set aside for excessive damage, 768-769.

"VILLAIN," 73, 100, 365.

WITNESS,

- costs of, in reply to inadmissible evidence, 847.
- discovery of names of witnesses, 645.
- evidence of, as to meaning of words, 696.
- evidence of, as to understanding of meaning of words, 393.
- mode of examining, to shew defamatory meaning of innocent words, 707.
- new trial for absence of, 814.
- previous inconsistent statements of, as affecting his evidence, 700.
- statements by, in judicial proceedings, privileged, 501.

"WHORE,"

- actionable, in Quebec, 42.
- calling a woman, under New Brunswick Act, 36, 48, 377.
- (See, also, Slander imputing Unchastity, 41-52).