great Empire, of which we form a part, I now beg leave to introduce the Bill, and to state that I have the permission of His Excellency to do so.

, as

Her

een car-

n I rery the in n to a of tion urse t if ave . I did ject iada orm urn, was carbulbut eonints I nen, rded een conre-I t in sion ings d of heir artiut I egudic-No rom that rself s for ers.] s; I etter own the the be-Jovaty, with ichg in But kept ht of ond own ugh to pt it the The hon. gentleman resumed his seat at 9:45, after having spoken for four hours and a quarter, amid loud and continued applause from all parts of the House.