

|   |          |
|---|----------|
| Chactaws have a play at ball   | p. 304   |
| — their punishment of adultery  | 308      |
| Character of an Indian hunter  | 117      |
| Chartres fort, at the Illinois                                       | 114      |
| Cherokees, Indians   | 331      |
| Cherry-trees, wild   | 222      |
| Chickasaws. See Tchikachas.  |          |
| Chitimachas, an Indian nation settled to the westward of New Orleans | 25       |
| Choaguen, a fort on lake Ontario                                     | 176      |
| Cirier, or wax-tree, or candle-berry myrtle                          | 351      |
| Collapissas, or Aquelon-pissas, an Indian nation                     | 34       |
| — generosity of one of them who underwent death instead of his son          | 169      |
| Conshakis, an Indian nation  | 229      |
| Copal-tree, or Rhus Copallinum                                       | 354      |
| Corrientes, Cape of Florida  | 11. 5    |
| Cotton, its culture  | 377      |
| Cuba, westernmost of the Antilles, or Leeward West-India islands     | 18       |
| D   |          |
| Dances customary among the Indians on various occasions              | 97       |
| Dauphin isle. See Massacre-isle.                                     |          |
| Dissertation on the preservation of health                           | 401      |
| Divers   | 97       |
| Dogs, Spanish, their antipathy to the Indians                        | 11. 12   |
| — flesh eaten by the Indians before they go to war                          | 99. 189. |
| Domingo (San Domingo) one of the West-India islands                  | 202      |
| — the capital of the isle of that name                                      | 5        |
| — instance of cruelty towards the negro slaves there                        | ibid.    |
| — instance of generosity of one of its inhabitants                          | 16       |
| Dorado, an imaginary country abounding in gold                       | 14       |
| — attempts of the Spaniards towards finding it                              | 87       |
| Ducks and Teals  | 89       |
| — which perch on trees  | 96. 97   |
|   | 373      |
| Eagle   |          |