

SECTION III.

Mode of Election.

A person, desiring to become a member of this Society, must be proposed by a member thereof, at a general or special meeting of the Society.

The election of a new member must be by ballot; but previous thereto, the Committee of Examination must report favorably in writing.

No new member to be admitted but with the consent of two-thirds of the Members present, at the time of the Ballot going round.

Every new Member, on being admitted, shall subscribe his name to the Constitutions entered in the Secretary's Book, and shall pay to the Treasurer a sum not less than Six Dollars, to be applied to the Charitable Fund, and the sum of Two Shillings and Six-pence to the Secretary for his trouble.*

Every new member shall be furnished with a Book of the Constitutions, and his name shall be added to the list of Members by the Secretary.

The President, Vice President and Assistants for the time being, in case any person who is a Passenger or Sojourner in the Province, shall desire to become an honorary member, may certify such person's qualifications in the Secretary's Book; and on such certificate he may be immediately ballotted for and chosen an Honorary Member of the Society in the manner before mentioned, such person contributing to the Charitable Fund a sum not less than Six Dollars, together with the Secretary's dues.

If such Honorary Member shall afterwards desire to become a standing Member of the Society, he shall be at liberty so to do, on paying to the Fund of Charity, the quarterly dues to be computed from the time of his admission.

*NOTE.—The initiation fee was reduced to Twenty Shillings by unanimous Resolution of the Society, 17th May, 1823; and the Committee can find no record on the Society's Books of any Secretary having received fees.
