

CONTENTS

VOLUME IV.

List of Latest Statutes and Reports Consulted xi

TOPIC B. — PRIVILEGED COMMUNICATIONS.

CHAPTER LXXIX.

SUB-TOPIC I. — CONFIDENTIAL COMMUNICATIONS IN GENERAL.

- | | |
|--|--|
| § 2285. General Principle of Privileged Communications. | § 2286. Sundry Confidential Communications not privileged; Clerks, Trustees, etc. § 2287. Same: Telegrams. |
|--|--|

CHAPTER LXXX.

SUB-TOPIC II. — COMMUNICATIONS BETWEEN ATTORNEY AND CLIENT.

- | | |
|--|--|
| § 2290. History. § 2291. Policy. § 2292. General Principle; Statutory Definitions. 1. "Where legal advice of any kind is sought," § 2294. Privilege is irrespective of Litigation begun or contemplated; History of the doctrine. § 2295. Same: General Principle and Policy. § 2296. Same: Advice for Non-Legal Purposes. § 2297. Same: Advice in Conveyancing or Drafting. § 2298. Same: Advice in a Criminal or Fraudulent Transaction. 2. "From a professional legal adviser in his capacity as such," § 2300. Persons having Legal Knowledge, but not Admitted to Practice. § 2301. Attorneys' Clerks and other Agents. § 2302. Client's Belief in the Attorney's Status. § 2303. Consultation in Attorney's Capacity. § 2304. Time of Consultation; Rejection of Retainer by Attorney. 3. "The communications relevant to that purpose," § 2306. Communications, distinguished from Acts; Client's Conduct and Appearance. § 2307. Same: Production of the Client's Documents. § 2308. Same: Testimony to Contents of Documents. § 2309. Same: Testimony to Possession, Existence, and Execution of Documents. § 2310. Relevancy or Necessity of the Communication. 4. "Made in Confidence," § 2311. Communications must be Confidential; Presence of a Third Person; Sundry Applications of the Principle. | § 2312. Communications to Opponent or his Attorney, or in Opponent's Presence; Joint Attorney. § 2313. Identity of Client or Purpose of Suit. § 2314. Execution of a Will or Deed. § 2315. Same: Attorney as Attesting Witness. 5. "By the client," § 2317. Privilege not applicable to Knowledge acquired from Other Persons, unless as Agents of the Client; Who are Agents. § 2318. Documents of the Client existing before Communication; General Liability to Discovery, distinguished. § 2319. Same: Conflict of the foregoing Principles illustrated. § 2320. Communications by the Attorney to the Client. 6. "Are at the client's instance permanently protected," § 2321. Privilege is the Client's, not the Attorney's, nor the Party's; Who may claim. § 2322. Inference from Claim of Privilege; Judge to determine Privilege. § 2323. Protection continues, though Relation of Client and Attorney be ended. 7. "From disclosure by himself or by the Legal Adviser," § 2324. Testimony by the Client or by the Attorney. § 2325. Indirect Disclosure by the Attorney. § 2326. Third Persons overhearing. 8. "Except the client waive the protection," § 2327. Waiver, in general; Voluntary Testimony as a Waiver. § 2328. Waiver by Joint Clients, Agents, Assignees. § 2329. Waiver by a Deceased Client's Representative. |
|--|--|