Controller McBride : It was never controller McBride: it was hever anticipated at any time so far as my knowledge goes that any of the money provided by the half mill on the dollar was to be taken and used for the development along the water-front. The half mill on the dollar should be for the acquisition of lands for park purposes. Controller Maguire : There is not a dollar of this being used on the west-ern harbor improvements, but still what is being done there should be what is being done there should be kept in view as park development. We have placed $150,000 for parks, and there has not yet been a single re-commendation by the parks depart-ment, and here's September. I canment, and here's September. I can-not understand a controller advising to halt capital expenditure and wanting more.

The five dollars additional which the steamship companies traveling between Europe and Canada have tacked on to the third class fare is not likely to af-fect immigration just at present, ac-cording to information given to The World yesterday by officials of the immigration office, as trans-ocean movement is practically at a standstill owing to lack of accommodation. The immigration authorities are busy day after day with people in Canada who want to bring out relatives, and seek the influence of that body to help them get a steamer. The department, how-ever, is helpless in the matter. Mr. Mit-chell, the head of the immigration of-fice, expects the present state of affairs to last for another three or four months, and then real immigration ought to and then real immigration ought to commence. The extra $5 (one pound sterling) may debar some people from sterling) may debar some people from coming to Canada, as if a man has say

In the course of further discussion about passing bylaws for parks up to the amount represented by the half mill on the dollar, Mr. Bradshaw remarked : "I would think council would have regard to financial conditions and not go headlong into the purchase f parks this year." Somebody said bylaws could be passed to provide money additional to the $150,000, and the finance commissioner replied : "I hope you won't." It was stated in reply to Alderman Paker that a half mill on the dollar represented $310,000.
