Inter-Association League. Inter-Association League.

The Senior Interassociation League race is progressing nicely, and the games so far have proved very close and exciting. The Baracas, under the captainship of Dick Brown, are showing up splendidly, and are leading in the race. The Florals, who hall from the Junction, are putting up a good article of ball, as are the Sherbrane and Arctics. Taken altogether, the league is fust as fast as any senior the league in the city. The games each Saturday on the Don Flats are witnessed by large and orderly crowds.

The Senior Interassociation League schedule for the balance of the season is as follows:

The standing of the Senior Interassociation League to-day in games won and lost: Baracas, 4—1; Florals, 3—1; Sherbournes, 2—3; Elms (Arctics), 0—1.
Games for this Saturday on Don Flats: 2 p.m., Sherbournes v. Arctics; 4 p.m., Florals v. Baracas. Umpire—G. H. Jones.
