The two claims have been secured for the company under a bond at the price of $20.000 in cash and $20.000 in shares in the company's stock. These claims are not offered as proven claims. If they were it would be impossible to purchase them at any such a price. Both claims are well smalled with timber, both for fuel and mining purposes, and an abundant supply of water is at hand. The Demon Dyspepsia.—in olden time it was a popular belief that demons moved invisibly through the ablent air, seeking conter into men and trouble them. At the present day the demon, dyspepsia, is at large in the same way, seeking habitation in those who by careless or unwise living invite him. And once he enters a man it is difficult to dislodge him. After sup-per he lay on the lounge, while his wife worked away at the sewing machine and worked away at the sewing machine and talked over plans for making a happy Christmas for their three children with the contents of the bundles. "I'm very tired," said hupp with a long sigh, and he closed his eyes. His wife did not wish to disturb him, so she worked silently at the machine till midnight. Then she put her work away and gently shook the sleeper. He did not respond, and becoming frigtened, the woman ran for Dr. Richter, near by. Her husband had fallen asleep and she could not awaken him. Dr. Richter looked at the man, and said gently: "Don't try to awaken him. It's the long sleep,"

The sufferer was attacked by the disease the day after the steamer left Marseilles and he was isolated as soon as the nature of the disease was learned. He was landed here:

Mr. R. U. McPherson Retires.

Mr. R. U. McPherson will not be a candidate for re-election to the School Board in Ward No. Three to-day, as he says his private business requires all bis attention. Mr. McPherson has been a member of the board for the past six years and bis record is one of which he may well be proud. Last year he was chairman. It is not likely that Mr. McPherson would have had opposition if he had consented to run again and it looks as if any good man nominated would have a walk-over.

THAT OLD HANGING JUDGE.

London Papers Are Full of Anec-dotes About Justice Hawkins and His Temper.

London, Dec. 24.—Judge Hawkins, a ruddy, keen-eyed old gentleman, of sporting proclivities, is the largest personage in the public eye, since the announcement of his retirement from the bench on Dec. 19. his retirement from the bench on Dec. 19. The newspapers and clubs teem with anecdotes of his sharp temper, kind heart and quick wit. His departure from the bench was as eccentric as his career upon it. It has been said that he adjourned court after recording the verdict in his last case and walked out, cuttin off the actorney's attempts at the customary valedictory laudations with the remark, "No specifies." His popularity was greater with the public than with the profession, the people believing that, in spite of his irascibility and his habit of violently taking sides, he seasoned his judgment's with the sauce of common sense. The bar's chief grievance was that although 70 years old he resisted until the last in holding court far into the night.

This company is especially formed to acquire the "Last Chance" and "Flying Dutchman" mineral claims in Camp McKinney in the same range as the Cariboo, the Last Chance being only separated from the Cariboo claims by the Wiarton Fraction. The Last Chance adjoins the Waterloo on one side and on the other side the Fontency.

There is no better investment in Camp McKinnney to-day than these claims offer to those who take stock in this

Options were secured on these claims from Mr. Stephen Mangott before the full merits of the camp were known to the public at a price which would not be accepted to-day. Shareholders in the company got the full benefit of the options that were secured at $20,000 in cash and $20,000 in stock for the two claims.

The first issue of stock, consisting of 200,000 shares (par value $50,000), is offered for sale at FIFTEEN CENTS PER SHARE, without deduction for commissions, so as to realize $30,000. The company can from the sale of this stock make all payments on both properties and leave nearly $10,000 in the treasury to apply exclusively to develop-After the sale of this issue of stock, 280,000 shares (par value $70,000) will remain in the treasury for further de-

The low capitalization of the company, coupled with the proved character of the camp and the location of these claims, make this the best prospective mining investment in British Columbia that is offered to the public to-day. Prospectus containing full particulars and mining report upon the property will be furnished upon application. All subscriptions for stock, accompanied by marked cheque, draft or postoffice order, should be addressed to the undersigned, who are authorized to give interim receipts pending the permanent organization of the company.
