HAMILTON NEWS

THE NEW CITY FATHERS MET

Mayor Teetzel, in His Inaugural, Advocated an Improved System of Macadam for Roads.

SLATE WENT THROUGH ALL RIGHT.

Striking Committee Reported, and Then the Aldermen Took Recession Till Evening-General Notes.

Hamilton, Jan. 9.—(Special.)—The 1899 City Council met for the first time this morning. All the aldermen and Mayor Teetzel were present. His Worship, in his inaugural address, said one of the important matters to be considered in the present year was that of street construction. He believed in an improved system of macadam roadway for most of the streets, and the taking care of them after being laid. There was plenty of the proper material, and no reason why the work could not be done satisfactorily. It might be possible that a bylaw would be submitted for this purpose. Another matter would be the readjustment of the water rates, so that the cost would be lighter on the smaller users. He wanted to see the charge for baths reduced. He believed that the subject of municipal reform should be considered, and advised the appointment of a small committee to gather from every source information on the subject of municipal government, the whole matter to be worked out in the form of a new charter for the city. He thought it was the spirit of the time that some reform should be worked out.

The following were appointed a Striking Committee: Ald. Reid, Hill, Kerr, Dwyer, Pettigrew, Findlay and Ted. Rev. Mr. Ald. Neilligan objected to the constitution of the committee. He said he wondered the Mayor did not bring the subject of no-party remarks in his inaugural address when he saw the first resolution of the new Council, which was a party resolution of the worst kind.

The Council then adjourned till evening.

CORDERS: A FAMILY SIDE BY SIDE

Funeral of the Late William Cowan and His Son Took Place at Ottawa Yesterday.

CORTEGE WAS A VERY LARGE ONE.

The New Mayor of the Capital Installed—Irishmen Welcomed Lord Minto—Ottawa Notes.

Ottawa, Jan. 9.—At 2 o'clock this afternoon the double funeral of the late Wm. Cowan and his son, Holmes Cowan, took place from the residence of Nicholas O'Brien, at 1212 St. Patrick street, to Beechwood Cemetery. The cortege was exceedingly large. The County Council attended in a body.

At noon the remains of the late Holmes Cowan were conveyed from his residence on his last journey to the residence of his father, Nicholas O'Brien, where the remains of both were laid side by side in the family parlor. Each was enclosed in a handsome oak casket, trimmed with oxidized brass. The casket of the late Wm. Cowan was the emblem of the Masonic, I.O.O.F. and L.O.L. Orders, of which he had been a prominent officer. The remains of both father and son looked well, notwithstanding that in the accident both were badly injured.

Napoleon Du Mail, the coachman who was in charge of the funeral, spoke up at 2 o'clock this afternoon.

The cortege was composed of the following: J. C. McKenna, Public Library Board; Dr. Woodworth and James Chisholm, Board of Education; Joseph Kirkpatrick and H. Raycroft, Board of Health.

The Court of Revision nominations caused another stir. James O'Brien and William Kavanagh were named for it, and O'Brien secured the plum by 12 to 9. Mayor Teetzel appointed Mr. John H. Tilden as the second member of the court. The Sheriff makes the third.

The Old "Templar."

This morning William Bell, solicitor for S. H. Graining, liquidator of the old Templar Publishing Company, appeared before Judge Sutherland in Chambers and filed a bill of alleged stockholders in the defunct company. He asked His Honor to fix a day to hear those who claim to be stockholders. The judge fixed Feb. 13 as the time for hearing appeals.

There are about 600 names on the list of subscribers, and not more than a quarter of that number have paid the second call of 10 per cent. to wind up the concern.

Much regret has been expressed for Mr. J. M. Lottridge, of the Lottridge Brewing Company, who died last night. He was a member of the firm's creditors on Saturday, O. S. Scott is the assignee, and a meeting of the creditors will be held on Jan. 14. The liabilities are large, it is said.

The reason he was forced to assign was, it is reported, that he was pushed for $100,000 stock subscribed to the Hamilton Jockey Club.

Winter Asizes.

The winter Asizes for the County of Wentworth opened this afternoon before Judge Boyd. The first case was that of Mrs. Hutton vs. the G.T.R. for $10,000 for the death of her alleged husband. Plaintiff was nonsuited, the judge not being satisfied that there was sufficient evidence that her first husband, Albert Warren, was dead.

The following were appointed a Striking Committee: Ald. Reid, Hill, Kerr, Dwyer, Pettigrew, Findlay and Ted. Rev. Mr. Ald. Neilligan objected to the constitution of the committee. He said he wondered the Mayor did not bring the subject of no-party remarks in his inaugural address when he saw the first resolution of the new Council, which was a party resolution of the worst kind.

The Council then adjourned till evening.

HEAD ROADMASTER NIX DINED

By His Assistants at McConkey's Last Night, When a Pleasant Evening Was Spent.

The roadmasters and head timekeepers of the Toronto Railway Company met at McConkey's parlors last night and tendered a complimentary banquet to Mr. William Henry Nix, head roadmaster of the company. Those present were: Messrs. William H. Nix, James H. Wallace, A. J. Edmonds, Nathaniel Pratt, John Argue, James McCarroll, David Karney, W. J. McWilliams, John Cronan, John Howden, Louis V. McDougall, William Henley and George R. Greene.

After a sumptuous repast had been partaken of, which was prepared by Caterer McConkey, the following toast list was drunk to: "The Queen," proposed by Chairman James H. Wallace; "Our Absent Members," proposed by Mr. Nix; "Mr. Nix, who, in a few words, thanked his friends, for the honor they had done him in providing
