LOCAL COUNCIL OF WOMEN

Met to Discuss Resolutions to Be

Miss McLeod of the Victorian Order of Nurses.

Miss McLeod of the Victorian Order of Nurses is in Regina at the branch of the order there. She reports that many eager requests for the establishment of branches of the Victorian Order throughout the Northwest have been made, and Quebec is also calling for Victorian nurses. terday afternoon. Miss Carty, the president, was in the chair, and among those present were Lady Thompson, Mrs. Georg Dickson, Mrs. Henry Strathy, Mrs. S. J. Wood, Mrs. Thompson, Miss Eastwood, Miss Clara Brett-Martin, Dr. Bertha Diamond Mrs. Torrington, Miss Rowand, Miss Cayley, Miss Cox.

A resolution of sympathy with Mrs. Cummings, the vice-president of the Local Council, in her late bereavement, was passed.

Three Resolutions.

Three Resolutions.

The object of the meeting was to discuss resolutions to be submitted to the sixth annual meeting of the National Council of which Canadians need no longer be ashared.

Athletics have no doubt much to do with afternoon. Miss Carty, the presi-resolutions to be submitted to the sixth annual meeting of the National Council of the Women of Canada, which will be held this month in Hamilton. Among these repolutions were the following:

"1. That the National Council of Women desires to urge the against ment of women and children are sprovided for, and that local councils be requested to consider the question and to further such appointments in their own districts." Another Association.

"2. Favored Annual Meetings.

The Local Council also declared in favor of a meeting of the National Council held annually, instead of biennially, as had been proposed by the Montreal Local Council. Miss Norris of the Drexel Institute, Phila delphia, then gave an interesting little talk on domestic economy, which was much appreciated by the Council.

Delegates Selected.

The following delegates and substitutes were elected to represent the Local Council at the National Council at Hamilton.

Delegates: Mrs. Torrington, Mrs. Stevens Miss Hart, Mrs. Grant McDonald, Dr. Ber tha Dlamond.

Substitutes: Mrs. Ed. Leigh, Mrs. Lozier, Mrs. Scales, Mrs. Arthur Cox, Miss Rowand.
