the offence, which created a deal of talk at the time, he was sentenced to seven months in Peel County Jail.

The lad, who had therefore not borne any specially bad character, had the sympathy of a wide circle of friends of his relatives. A petition was largely signed in his behalf, and prospects were bright for his release; in fact, Guard Taggart had come to tell him some good news, when Rutledge selzed a chair, just as the door closed behind the former, and seriously injured him.

For this dastardly deed, the youthful injured him.

For this dastardly deed, the youthful criminal was awarded seven years in Kingston Fenitentiary. If was a short time after his release for this crime that Detective Murray was after him for robberies, as related in The World on Thursday.

FUNERAL ON MONDAY.

Charles Rutledge and his wife, "Louise," brother and sister-in-law respectively of the dead prisoner, waited on Coroner Powell last night, with the result that the remains will be handed over to them after the inquest to day for burial. They appeared at the Jail last night, but were refused permission to see the body. They have instructed Undertakers A. P. McCabe & Co. to secure possession of the remains. The funeral will probably take place on Monday to St. James' Cemetery, or Streets-ville, the birthplace of deceased.

WHO IS MRS. BLACK ?

The woman who made application at the General Hospital on Thursday for the remains of Jones, called on Inspector Stark yesterday. She denied that she was Kate Spellman, or that she had been in jail in Chicago for shoplifting, and she says her real name is Mrs. Black, and that Jones' proper cognomen is Francis Joseph Ryan. She gave no further particulars of the

When asked if the police intended to take any action against the woman without some positive evidence of her connection with the attempted escape, Inspector Stark replied that it would be an outrage. "She is here on an errand of mercy, and even if she had only got out of penitentiary yesterday we would have no right to arrest her. If we took her into custody, we would probably be called to account by the United States government."
