WRITES ANOTHER LETTER. General Buller Wants to State His

Views on Brodrick's Charges. London, July 22.—General Buller has written another letter to William Brodrick, the Secretary of State for War, in which he complains that Mr. Brodrick accentuated charges in the House of Commons which were never officially brought against him, and to which he was ordered not to reply. In his communication to the War Secretary Gen. Buller demands that he be allowed to state his views regarding Ladysmith's capability to hold out

Regular prices double, yes two and a half times more than 50c—in other words the shirts are worth $1.00 and $1.25 each. We told you the history when that first lot was placed on sale two weeks ago, so it's hardly necessary to tell again the circumstances which brought about so sensational a happening. This second instalment of shirts is fully up to the high standard of the first offering and just as complete in size assortments. It may happen that a size or so is missing in some particular pattern, but he'll be indeed a difficult man to suit that can't readily pick on some other equally pretty pattern. Out-of town customers
