Stock Room

Stock Room

We All Move Upstairs on the 1st of August-- Another Floor to be Added to the Selling Space.

Somewhat of a surprise, isn't it, to think of this store moving? But we'll do all our moving right on our own premises this time. We all move upstairs, that's all. You see we've wanted more room for a long time. The top floor of the building has, heretofore, been our Stock Room, where we open new cases and store reserve quantities of goods till they are needed in the various departments where they are sold. Well, we're going to do away with this Stock Room. We simply have to. We need the room. The restaurant and the pictures are going up there. We need the space occupied by the restaurant and the pictures for furniture. Furniture space for carpets, carpets for mantles, mantles for dress goods and so on right down to the ground floor.

Now the point is, that all the goods in the Stock Room at present must be cleared out at once. It will mean a big undertaking, but big discounts will do it. We will offer $150,000 worth of goods at discounts which will clear them out in short order. There will be no attempt made to realize actual values. Space is what we need, and we'll go without other things to get it. We present Monday's programme herewith:
