Rhodes; "The Power of Love," St.
Francis d'Assisi; "The Power of Ideas," Robert Owen; "The place of woman and her future in the teaching profession," Edward Howard Griggs, the most popular lecturer on the Atlantic coast, says of Earl Barnes:
"He is distinctly a man with a mission, and that mission the one of teacher in the highest sense. I have never been associated with any other man to whom so many people owed their awakening."

MANY WEDDINGS OF A JUNE DAY

Kilbert-Heron Nuptials at First Congregational—London Girl Weds Toronto Traveler.

A pretty church wedding took place in the First Congregational Church yesterday afternoon, when Rev. D. S.
Hosmer, officiated in marriage, Miss Sarah Jean Heron, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Thomas Heron, of this city, and Mr. Lewis Max Kilbert, of Chicago.

The bride, who was supported by two bridesmaids—her sister, Miss Nellie Heron, and Miss Ethel McDonald, her cousin, of Aymer—was beautifully attired in a gown of oyster-gray silk crepe de chine, over white taffeta silk, with oriental silk trimming and bridal veil, and carrying a shower bouquet of orange blossoms.

The auditorium of the church, where the ceremony was conducted, was beautifully decorated with palms, ferns and marguerites. The bride entered leaning on the arm of her father, while Miss Florence Sutherland, of Embro, played Mendelssohn's Wedding March.
The charming little flower girl was Miss Annie Campbell McRostie, of Milton, who carried the ring, and strewn the path of the bridal party with sweet peas, as they left the church. She wore a dainty frock of Swiss embroidery with pink ribbon trimmings and a silk sash.

The bridesmaids were becomingly attired in Swiss organdie, trimmed with lace and insertion, and wore chiffon hats to match, while each carried flowers.

The groom was assisted by his brother, Mr. R. P. Kilbert, and Mr. F. E.
Shoemaker, both of Chicago.

The ushers were Messrs. R. J. Heron, of Embro, and W. J. Heron, of Napanee, assisted by the regular officers of the church.

The bridal party, along with the guests and attendants, adjourned to the home of the bride's parents, 362 Dundas street, after the ceremony, and there a reception was held and wedding breakfast served. There under an arch of evergreens and flags of Canada and the United States, the happy couple received congratulations from many friends and relatives from different parts of the Empire and States.
Telegrams were also received expressing the regret of those who could not attend. The infant son of Mr. and Mrs.
W. J. Heron was christened at this reception.

The groom's gifts were: To the bride a purse of $100 in gold; to the bridesmaids, solid gold bracelets with monograms engraved upon them; to the flower girl, a necklace and locket with her name neatly inscribed, and to the bride's parents, a beautiful hand-painted portrait of the bride and groom in water colors.

Among the guests present were: Mr.
Robert Kilbert, of the Academy of Arts, Chicago; Mr. F. Shoemaker, Chicago; Mrs. J. H. McIntosh and daughters, Miss Bernice and Mrs. Lawson, of Toronto; Mr. and Mrs. F. J.
McRostie, of Milton; Mr. and Mrs.
George Glendenning, of Bennington; Mr. J. E. McDonald and children, of Embro; Mr. and Mrs. R. J. Heron, of Embro; Mr. and Mrs. W. J. Heron and son, of Napanee; Miss Grace McDonald, of Derby, N. Y.; Mrs. John A.
McDonald and Miss Clarke, of Ay-mer.

Mr. and Mrs. Kilbert left on the Eastern Flyer for Toronto, Niagara, Albany and the Thousand Islands.
On their return they will reside at "Fair Lawn," their beautiful residence on Levanth Avenue, Chicago.

MOON—SNIDER.

A very pretty wedding was solemnized yesterday afternoon at the residence of Mr. Peter Snider, South London, when his eldest daughter, Miss Anna Finella, was wedded to Mr. William James Moon, formerly of this city, now of Toronto. Rev. James Livingstone officiated.

The bride was exquisitely gowned in point d'esprit, over white silk, with brussels lace and bead-trimmed trimmings, wearing veil and orange blossoms, and carrying white bridal roses.

Miss Clara Snider, sister of the bride, was attired in white batiste with white satin ribbon and brussels lace trimmings, and carried pink carnations, while little Dorothy, the daughter, sister of the bride, wearing white Persian lawn and valenciennes lace, carried the ring in a basket of sweet peas.

Mr. Moon was assisted by his brother, Mr. Fred Moon.

At the strains of Lohengrin's Wedding March, by Miss Anna Gramlich, the bride entered the drawing-room leaning on the arm of her father.

After the ceremony, which was performed in a beautiful alcove of maple leaves, marguerites and bridal-wreath, the guests, about 50 in number, re-sat down to a dainty wedding breakfast on the lawn, after which toasts were proposed to the bride, the groom, the parents of the bride and groom.

The bride's going-away costume was a brown taffeta silk skirt, white net waist, with white chiffon hat. Mr. and Mrs. Moon left at 6:55 on a trip through the Thousand Islands to Montreal. They will take up their residence on Close Avenue, Parkdale, Toronto, where they will be at home to their friends after July 30.

Many beautiful gifts were received by the young couple. Almost a complete set of Haviland china was received by the bride from her girl friends, who showered her on Monday evening. The groom's present to the bride was a superb pearl necklace, a gold bracelet with amethyst settings, to the bridesmaid; a brooch to the flower girl. The groomsmen was the recipient of a pair of gold cuff links.

BROWN—DRAKE.

A very pretty though simple wedding was solemnized yesterday in St.
Peter's Episcopal Church, Dorchester, when Miss Winnifred Merrill, eldest daughter of Mr. and Mrs. W. C.
Drake, became the bride of Mr. Wm.
J. Brown, of the Bell Telephone staff, this city.

The ceremony was performed by the rector, Rev. Har-1 Sutton. Miss Sadie Knowles, of Sarnia, cousin of the bride, played the wedding march, to the strains of which the bride, who looked charming in white taffeta with lace garnitures, and carrying bridal roses, entered the church, leaning on the arm of her father.

The church was beautifully decorated with orange blossoms.

Dr. C. Roy Walsh, rendered a solo, during the signing of the register, which was very much appreciated.

The popularity and esteem in which the young couple are held was amply testified by the beautiful and costly gifts which they received.

The groom's gift to the bride was a beautiful necklace.

Lily May the ceremony the guests repaired to the bride's home, where a dainty luncheon was partaken of.
Mr. and Mrs. Brown left on the 4:40 train for Montreal.

The bride's going-away dress was a blue tailored suit, with hat to match.

McLELLAN—ZAVITZ.

A very pretty and pleasant event took place last evening at the home of Mr. and Mrs. J. P. Mitchell, 207 Simcoe street, the occasion being the marriage of Mrs. Mitchell's sister, Miss Lily May Zavitz, to Mr. Augustine McLellan, Rev. Mr. Carew, of the Maitland Street Baptist Church, performed the ceremony.

The bride carried a beautiful bou-quet of white roses, and was charmingly attired in pale gray embroidered mull, trimmed with Valenciennes lace.
The bridesmaid, Miss Maude Campbell, of Kerwood, wore a pretty gown of Irish organdie, and carried a bouquet of choice pink carnations. Mr. Clayton Zavitz, brother of the bride, attended the groom.

After the ceremony the guests, about 45 in number, repaired to the dining-room, where a dainty wedding breakfast was served.

The young couple were made the recipients of a large number of beautiful and costly presents, showing their popularity among a wide circle of friends.

WEAVER—STEWART.

The wedding took place at the Wellington Street Methodist parsonage, yesterday, of Miss Evelyn Dorothy Stewart, of Woodstock, to Mr. W. C.
Weaver, of this city. Rev. James Livingstone conducted the ceremony. Mr. and Mrs. W. Hynd assisted the couple, who will reside in this city.

DOWLING—WOODLEY.

The residence of Mr. John Woodley, corner of Simcoe and Wellington streets, was the scene of a pretty wedding, when Mr. Woodley's daughter, Miss Emma Jean, became the wife of Mr. Fred H. Dowling, Rev. James Livingstone was the officiating clergyman. Miss Ada Woodley, the youngest sister of the bride, was bridesmaid, and Mr. Wm. Sutherland supported the groom. The bride's gown was of white silk, with veil to match. After the ceremony about 35 guests sat down to a dainty wedding breakfast served at the home of the bride's parents.
Mr. and Mrs. Dowling will reside on Marmion street, this city, on their return from a short honeymoon.

HASKETT—TREBILCOCK.

A very pretty wedding was celebrated yesterday at 2:30 o'clock at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Charles Trebil-cock, Maple Lodge, the Grove, when their daughter, Mabel, was united in marriage to Mr. Robert P. Haskett, formerly of this city, now engaged in business at Allenford.

The bride was beautifully attired in a dainty white Brussels net over white silk, with the customary veil and orange blossoms. She carried a shower bouquet of bridal roses, and was preceded into the spacious parlors by her little niece, Miss Laura Kirkwood, of Bruce street, this city, as flower girl, and preceded by a young girl, organdie trimmed with white lace, and carrying a basket of sweet peas.
