REVOLTING ASSAULT COMMITTED BY TRAMP

Mother Saw Him Seize Her Little Girl-District in Grip of Fierce Storm.

HAMILTON, July 27.—(Special.)— There was a revolting assault near Copetown this afternoon, according to the Dundas police, and Joseph Dorant, a tramp, was arrested on the charge of committing the crime. Katle Lanfray, the five-year-old daughter of a section the five-year-old daughter of a section man employed by the T. H. & B. Railway was the victim. The youngster was sent on a message by her mother, and she had not gone far before she was seized by the tramp. Her mother saw the incident, and her screams at tracted John Harris, who chased the tramp and caught him. Chief Twiss took the man to Dundas lockup, and he will be arraigned in the morning. The child was attended by Dr. Bertram of Dundas.

The wind, rain and halstorm, which passed over the city this afternoon was one of the most violent seen here in years. Lightning danced about on the trolley, telephone and telegraph wires, while the wind carried the rain along the streets in sheets. The sewers were unable to carry off the flood, and the streets were sizeable rivers. and the streets were sizeable rivers. As a consequence cellars were flooded, As a consequence cellars were flooded, trees were uprooted and at the corner of MacNab and Jackson-streets an arc lamp was knocke ddown. The hail storm was something new in these parts, the hailstones having been nearly as large as marbles. In the city and in the fruit district directly east of here, they did not do much damage, gut in the district surrounding Bur-1) ington and Oakville, it is reported that the damage to the fruit crops was heavy. In the city a large number of telephones were burned out, and lightning struck the residence of Robt. Armstrong, 68 Bolton-ave. The firemen extinguished the flames, which were in the roof. The fire alarm system was somewhat damaged by the storm. The big steef flag staff on the storm. The big steel flag staff on the mountain, near the east end incline, was blown over the side of the moun-

Things are reported quiet in the Grand Trunk strike to-night. Several more freights were moved to-day, but owing to the inability of the company to supply cars, it is reported that Fowler's Canadian Company, meat packers, and the American Canning Company may have to close down. The former cannot get any cattle in and the latter cannot get its stuff out. Thomas Todd, chairman of the grievance committee of the unions, says that for every dollar the men are losing, the company is losing thousands.

The parks board to-night decided, in view of the strong opposition to it, not to put up a fence around Dundurn Park, for the present. B. O. Hooper, representing the St. Clair Land Company, offered the board a piece of land on Deleware and Sherman-avenues for a park, and suggested a plan of the proposed park. The matter was left with A. Pain and A. Lees for a report. The board decided to buy a bull moose for Dundurn Zoo for $75.

The police raided a Chinese restaurant

The police raided a Chinese restaurant on John-street near King William, about 11 o'clock to-night and selzed some liquor. A prosecution will likely be made. Michael J. Donohue, for 25 years foreman of the sheet metal department of the Sawyer Massey Company, died this evening at his home, 247 North Weiling-street. He was 3 years of age and leaves a widow, one son and six daughters. The interment will take place in Holy Sepulchre Cemetery.

finished Up the Revision of Town's Assessment-Never So Many Appeals Before.

NORTH TORONTO, July 27 .- (Special.)-The annual excursion of the North Toronto Volunteer Fire department to Welland on Wednesday, Aug. 3, is one event that ought to be, and doubtless will be, generously pa-

The volunteer firemen of this town during the past year have done yeo-man service on many occasions and the townspeople have now an opportunity to manifest in some tangible manner their appreciation. A thank-less duty, it is only the desire on the part of the volunteer men to render the town a real service which prompts them to undertake the work of drill and labor incidental to their calling. The local firemen are not in it for any monetary consideration, and if they were they would not remain long. Chief Collins and every one of his subordinate officers and men deserve all the recognition the town can pay hem, and not alone at Welland, but locally, at Monday's picnic, they ought to and doubtless will receive every

North Toronto has at least two puborganizations which add lustre and credit to the town—the volunteer fire-men and the Citizen's Band. His Honor Judge Morgan put thru the balance of the assessment appeals to-day and finished a busy two days' session and one of the most outstand-

Mr. Rogers says that on June 1 the little boy, Frank, was pronounced to be suffering from diphtheria and was removed to the hospital. Later he and his wife became alarmed about re-ports that patients there had con-tracted other diseases, and Mrs. Rogers visited the hospital and begged that special precautions be tak-en. She was told not to be afraid. The child, under the care of Dr. J. C. Copp. recovered from diphtheria. Then came the news that he had contracted scarlet fever, and two days later that measles had broken out.

The child died on June 30. Mr. Rogers says that the two doctors in attendance impressed him as youthful and lacking in proper experience.

Medical Health Officer Sheard says it is impossible to guard altogether against the intrusion of unexpected diseases into hospitals.
