WINNIPEG GRAIN MARKET.

Winniper, June 1.—Scarcely any offerings in coarse grains at Chicago, induced by lower prices and excessive rains, operated egainst the immediate reflection of bearish conditions in the grain market today, prices ranging firm to a shade stronger. The spectacular feature of the day was a bulge of 23 cents per bushel in Winnipeg October flax. It soared to $2.76 a hushel. A likely reduction in flax acreage, unless immediate rains occur, was responsible for the bulge.

Western Canadian weather shows further improvement. The temperatures are high, end in districts where rain is wanted, the chart shows clouded skies.

Quite Sensitively-Over Million Sales.

New York, June 1.—The market exout of the temporary closing of the port of New York and the sinking of American sailing ships.

U. S. Steel was a striking illustration of the market's sensitive state at that functure, falling to 126% from its previous high of 121%. On the rebound of the last four, when virtually all losses were restored, Steel rose to 131% and closed at 120%, a net gain of % of a point, allowing for its ex-dividend of 4% points.

American Smelting made an extreme state of the temporal dealing with the ore resources and development was rot forthcoming. Promises from official sources have led people to believe that increases in this department will more than offset the unfavorable statement of production.
