The instances are few wherein the police department decline to assist in unravelling a theft, but, it so happened recently that such was the case. A laborer who resides in south and notified the police that he was deprived of $30 in an abode outside the city limits and suspected one of the female inmates of the theft. Detective Killen is enjoying his vacation and Acting Detective Lucas was detailed to interview the woman under suspicion and effect an arrest if the circumstances warranted such action. However, the man, although he was anxious to recover the money refused to be a witness in view of the publicity attached to it and he was promptly informed that the police would not undertake to proceed with the case under such conditions. He concluded that the effect of the publicity would overbalance the recovery of the money and therefore the suspect was spared, and prosecution.

At a meeting of the Inter-Society Baseball League executive on Saturday night in the rooms of St. Peter's Y. M. C. A., the rumor that the league was on the verge of collapse and the proposed formation of a new local league comprised of three of the league aggregations and the Matthews was discussed at length. The president of the league states that there is no possibility of a collapse and the schedule of the schedule will be arranged for the St. Peter's and St. Joseph's to meet in a nine inning contest on Saturday afternoon. Games will be played also tomorrow night, Thursday, and Saturday night.

The St. Joseph's states that if a local league will probably be necessary owing to the unfavorable weather. The manager of the St. Joseph's states that if a local league was organized his team would not be one of the teams that would constitute it. It is understood that the Howe brothers and Thomas will again figure in the Society League.
