

Financial-Secretary's report, which included House Committee's, was read by Mrs. Moffat and on motion adopted.

Moved by Mrs. Bascom, seconded by Mrs. Bastedo, and carried unanimously, that a hearty vote of thanks be tendered the House Committee for the very efficient manner in which they have managed the house during the past year.

Mrs. Carlyle gave report of Fair Committee, special mention being made of the very valuable assistance rendered by Mr. Burke while the building was in course of erection. Thanks were also tendered to Messrs. Walker, Fletcher, Hilborn, Melrose and a number of ladies, who, though not members of the W. C. T. U., assisted. Mrs. Moffat read financial statement of Fair work, and Mrs. Brownell reported for the Literature Committee, all of which were adopted.

Reports of Work Among Lumbermen and Sabbath Schools were read by the Superintendents and adopted.

Meeting adjourned.

EVENING.

A public meeting was held in Elm Street Church in the evening, Mrs. Rutherford presiding. Rev. J. F. German, D.D., welcomed the W. C. T. U. to his church. Rev. W. G. Wallace opened with prayer, and Rev. Chas. E. Eaton gave a most excellent address. The Corresponding Secretary read a synopsis of the report of work done during the year. Miss McIntyre gave a very interesting account of the work accomplished by the Girl's Shelter since its inception, and touched the hearts of all present by her earnest manner and devotion to this preventive work. The music was furnished by Miss Crank and Mr. Doherty and the choir of Elm Street Church.

FRIDAY MORNING.

The meeting opened 10 a.m., with devotional exercises. Minutes of afternoon session read and approved.

Reports of departments were continued. Flower Mission, Narcotics, Kitchen Garden and School of Methods were all read and adopted. Mrs. Stevens gave verbal report of Legislation and Petitions. Mrs. Vance reported nothing done in work among Indians, and Mrs. Spence told of efforts to organize Union amongst our colored people but without success.

A very interesting account of the Boys' Brigade was given by Miss Coates and supplemented by Mr. (Captain) Geddes, drill master of the Brigade. The report was adopted with words of commendation for Miss Coates and Mr. Geddes' faithful work.
