

Painter's Colic, Diarrhoea, Summer Complaint and Cholera Morbus, to be treated the same as Cramp and Pain in the stomach; the dose to be repeated more or less frequently as the violence of the attack may require, bathing the stomach and bowels freely with the medicine, laid on warm with flannel. Keep the flannel moist with the medicine. The Pain-Killer may be often given with Castor Oil, in such cases with good effect.

For Dysentery.—Take a teaspoonful of Pain-Killer, well mixed with a gill of hot milk and molasses, or with a tablespoonful of Castor Oil, at the same time bathing the bowels, as in Diarrhoea, Summer Complaints, etc.

For Cholera Infantum.—To a child under twelve months, give from ten to twenty drops in warm milk and water, sweetened with loaf sugar, every hour, bathing the stomach in a mixture made of a teaspoonful of the Pain-Killer in a half gill of milk and water, warm. If the child be between one and two years old, use for a bath equal parts of Pain-Killer and milk and water, increasing the dose accordingly. For a child over two years, use the Pain-Killer clear, for a bath, increasing the dose to half a teaspoonful.

For Cholera.—Take a teaspoonful of the medicine in hot water, sweetened with sugar. Bathe the stomach and bowels freely with the Pain-Killer at the same time. If the attack be severe, and attended with cramps and diarrhoea, repeat the dose every fifteen minutes, using hot fomentations to the bowels. In extreme cases, the dose may be increased to a tablespoonful.

* * In Cholera Infantum, as well as in Asiatic Cholera, the Pain-Killer may be given with Castor Oil, in about equal proportions, with the most favorable effect.

For Scalds and Burns.—Keep the parts wet with the Pain-Killer till the pain ceases. To heal the wound, use the salve prepared for Ringworms and Old Sores.

For Frost-Bites and Chilblains.—Bathe freely in Pain-Killer several times a day.

For Sprains and Bruises.—Rub the Pain-Killer well into the wounded parts taking the medicine internally at the same time.

For Whitlows, Felons, and Boils.—Keep the part affected covered with a cloth kept moist with Pain-Killer, till the pain is relieved. Take the medicine internally at the same time.

For Ringworms and Old Sores.—Bathe in the Pain-Killer, and then apply a salve made of equal parts of rosin, beeswax and sweet oil, mixed by simmering on a slow fire. Take half a teaspoonful in molasses and water three times a day, during the treatment.

For Rheumatism and Neuralgic Affection.—Bathe the parts affected freely with the Pain-Killer, well rubbed in, till the pain is relieved.

For Pain in the Side, Back and Loins.—Treat the same as Rheumatism.

For Stings of Insects, Scorpions, Centipedes, and the Bites of Poisonous Insects.—Keep the wounded parts covered with a cloth well moistened with Pain-Killer till relieved. It is well to take the medicine internally also.

For the Bites of Venomous Reptiles.—Take the medicine freely internally, in doses sufficient to keep the system well stimulated, while the wound is kept wet with the Pain-Killer. The bite of the rattlesnake has frequently been cured simply by bathing the wounded part so far as the swelling extended.

The Bites and Scratches of dogs and cats are readily cured by bathing in the Pain-Killer.

Wounds by Fish Hooks, or the Fins of Fish, may be cured in the same way.

Dr. Sweet says it takes out the soreness in cases of bone-setting, faster than anything he has ever used for that purpose.

Mothers will find it invaluable in the nursery, and it should always be kept at hand in case of accident. For Pain in the breasts, take a little Pain-Killer in sweetened milk and water, bathing the breasts with it clear at the same time. If the milk-passages are clogged, from cold or other causes, bathing in the Pain-Killer will give immediate relief.

The above directions are the result of many years' experience, and the medicine seldom fails to effect a cure where used accordingly.

When a man in love with a woman in a family, it is astonishing how fond he comes of every one connected with it. He best time when the darling little Fairy performs a piece on the piano and smiles which wicked little B. by upsets the coffee on his shirt.
