morning. His Honor Judge McLeod pre-siding.<sup>1</sup> Henry Crawford was the first witness examined, and stated that the plans drawn up showed that the trench in which Mr. Dooley met his death was to be dug un-der the old sewer. In this case the plan was not followed, as the trench was dug past the end of the sewer. Witness re-ceived no instructions from Superintend-ent Murdoch to brace the trench prior to the accident. On cross-examination by Mr. Skinner witness said he was in charge of the work and he appointed Harry Lawton to act for him in his absence. Mr. Murdoch did not give him (Crawford) any orders to change the direction of the trench. So yas the old sewer. Dr. Ellis, sworn, told of 'being summond to Rodney wharf to attend Mr. Dooley, when the accident occurred in the trench. He examined Mr. Dooley as soon as he was taken from the trench. He administ-cred stimulants and had him taken to his home, where he mide a more thorough ex-amination of the patient and found sever-a ramination of the patient and found sever-a rins were broken and the lungs affect to the hospital.
