Are Foreign Beers British?

No, none of them. Therefore it is not reasonable when patriotism and loyalty claim so much of our attention that we who have been in the habit of using foreign Beers should seek out a substitute of British origin!

Here it is:

Ready's Lager Beer

Not only British, but a home product of sterling worth. After using READY'S once, you have no hankering for foreign Beers, and it costs about half.

NYAL'S "HANDY" OINTMENT

We call it "Handy Ointment" because it comes in a convenient squeeze-tube instead of the old messy jar. Just squeeze a little out instead of dipping your finger into a jar and getting both hands smeared up. The unused portion in the tube is always sealed and protected from dirt and contamination.

NYAL'S HANDY OINTMENT is worthy of the package—it quickly relieves and heals cuts, burns, scalds, old stubborn sores, abscesses, ulcers, etc. Cleansing, Antiseptic and Astringent.

He will leave on Thursday to visit his brother, Rev. Father Carter, pastor of one of the Catholic churches near Chatham.

VISIT FREDERICTON AFTER FIFTY YEARS

Judge James Lafferty is visiting his old home, Fredericton. He came from California to make his visit after being away from the scene of his boyhood in a century and not having been back here in all that time.

Judge Lafferty was born in Fredericton, a son of the late Peter Lafferty, who conducted a tavern at the corner of Brunswick and Regent streets, and in 1848, when nineteen years old, struck out from here on his own account.

At Orville Mr. Lafferty has been Judge of the police court and is one of the most highly respected residents of that city. During his visit here Mr. Lafferty has been having a hard time to find any of his boyhood friends, about the only one he located being John Owen, who conducts a grocery business in Regent street. With his sister, Mrs. Giles Osogod, of Roxbury, Mass., who is also here, Mr. Lafferty will leave in a day or two for Boston, where he will visit his other sister, Mrs. Robert Maxwell.
