The Heart of Humanity, a tremendous love story of the war, produced by Allen Holubar, will open a four day run at the Queen Square Theatre on Wednesday next. This magnificent nine reel superfilm is the story of a young wife who followed her husband to war in order that she might care for the suffering children of France and Belgium and there learned the real meaning of the Heart of Humanity.

Lieutenant Ernest Geoffrey Weeks, M. C., M. M., of Charlottetown, P. E. I., has been awarded a first bar to his military cross. The award was made for his example of cheery devotion to duty and utter disregard for personal safety during several operations at the front.

WORKING MEN'S WEEK AT OAK HALL

This week has been set aside by Oak Hall at make special offers to working men, and the way the store was crowded yesterday goes to show that Oak Hall have certainly chosen an opportune time to offer winter merchandise at greatly reduced prices, right at the beginning of cold weather. Winter underwear, hosiery, sweater, shaker night shirts and pyjamas, heavy working shirts, overalls, and other lines that are needed now. Large quantities of merchandise were bought for this special occasion at rock bottom prices, other lines were selected from regular stock and greatly reduced, all going together to make this the greatest opportunity for saving money that working men have had for a long time, take advantage of it now, early in the week while stocks are complete.
