Get Most from Every Ton of Coal

Coal is high and scarce, and you owe it to yourself to make your supply go as far as possible—to be sure that nothing is wasted. This, you can easily accomplish with the

HUSTLER ASH SIFTER

(shown in the illustration). Simply place the ashes in the hopper, close the lid, then turn the crank. The half-burned coal falls into the scuttle and can be used again. The fine dust is deposited in the galvanized iron barrel. The Hustler is Strong, Cleanly, and can be readily operated, even by a child. Let us send you a Hustler Sifter.

GUARD AGAINST FIRE

by keeping your ashes in Galvanized Iron Barrels, of which we have a good supply. We also carry Ash Sieves, Coal Hods, Fire Shovels, Stove Pipe, Elbows, Black Lead, etc.

LOCAL NEWS

JOHN LOGAN DEAD.
John Logan, son of Mrs. Alex. Logan, of 75 Chesley street, died in the General Public Hospital yesterday morning. He was twenty-five years old and leaves his mother, three brothers, James and Harvey and Thomas, a returned soldier; two sisters, Mrs. H. Tuttle of Houlton, Maine, and Miss Jessie at home. The funeral will take place on Tuesday afternoon from his mother's residence.

MRS. JAMES GARNETT.
The death of Mrs. James Garnett, 62 Elm street, took place last Thursday evening. She was thirty-two years of age. Besides her husband she leaves four children, also one sister, Miss Eliza Grover, of Glen Falls. Death was due to Spanish influenza. The funeral took place on Saturday. Services were conducted by the Rev. Dr. Hutchinson at her home and interment was made at Garnett Settlement. She was formerly Miss Miss Grover.

MRS. L. A. BRAGER.
The death of Mrs. L. A. Brager occurred at the home of Mr. and Mrs. C. Brager, 348 Union street, on Sunday morning at two o'clock from pneumonia. The news of her death will be a shock to many of her friends. She was a young woman of sterling qualities, always ready to render assistance either in social or patriotic welfare. Besides her husband she leaves to mourn her parents, one sister and three brothers—one who is now fighting in the United States Army overseas. The body will be taken tonight to Portland, Maine where interment will be made.

CHIN CHIN CO.'S HARD LUCK.
The Chin Chin Co., which played here a few weeks ago but was barred in several other places in the maritime provinces by the influenza ban, is still traveling in hard luck. In a letter received from Manager Rodrigues, on Saturday, the Imperial Theatre people here were informed that after waiting a week for the "Flu" ban to be lifted in Montreal and then hearing of a decision to keep it on another week, the company packed up and crossed over the boundary. The Dillingham interests lost considerable money by this road show's misfortune.

PRETTY DIRTY STREETS.
The condition of Brussels street and the Sydney-Brussels section of Union street, is still one of the special blemishes roundabout the city. Near the corner of Union street, on what is familiarly known as the wood market and triangle, pools adorn the thoroughfare on the least rainy provocation and up along Union street the mud and pools continue until the new pavement is reached. In fact with upstanding car tracks and deep mud, it is dangerous for vehicles and not very nice for pedestrians. There is no crossing that can be used without wetting one's feet, near the Golden Ball corner, and this is an important business block, too.

ALOYSIUS WERNER.
News of the death of Aloysius Werner, learned of today with much regret. He passed away yesterday morning after a short illness. Mr. Werner had lived for a long time in Woodstock before removing to St. John. His wife, who died some time ago, was a daughter of Mrs. James Holt who lived to the remarkable age of several years beyond the century mark. There are four daughters and one son surviving Mr. Werner—Mrs. James L. Daley, Brussels street; Mrs. John Troy, Woodstock; Mrs. Anne Melan, St. John; Mrs. Killam, Harvey of Lynn, Mass., and Aloysius, in Norway, Mass. Mr. Werner was a man of kindly manner and superior qualities.

ST. JOHN LIVE WIRE IN MONCTON.
In the midst of the especially severe ravages of Spanish influenza in Moncton an outstanding helper and fearless nurse is Mrs. A. Killam, formerly Miss Julia Elliott of this city. Mrs. Killam has organized a sub-hospital in the Baptist church, and with other heroic workers is doing a noble work especially among the poor, in some families of whom eight and ten members are prostrated. While in St. John Mrs. Killam—then Miss Elliott—was one of the city's most fearless sick and social workers, attempting and carrying through successfully succoring projects that would make many a men's committee think twice.

BRIDE WELL KNOWN HERE.
Miss Jennie B. Evans, of Portland (Me.), known to a large circle of people in this city through her several engagements with the Keith interests in the days when singers were a regular part of the programme, was married at Rowland Park, Maryland, near Baltimore, recently to Sergt. Leroy M. York, of Brewer (Me.), a pharmacist in Bangor for several years and now on the dispensing staff of the American army.

Doctor York is equally popular as his bride in the Pine Tree state, and the military honors accorded them at their wedding, in which ceremony the camp chaplain officiated, testified to the esteem in which the physician-druggist-soldier is held by his fellows in khaki. Mrs. York, because of her several professional sojourns in this city, and subsequent social visits, was a welcoming friend to many who had occasionally to visit Portland.

WIFE OF REV. MR. TEDFORD DEAD; FEW DAYS ILL.

Universal sympathy goes out to Rev. A. Lawrence Tedford and family because of the death of Mrs. Tedford, which occurred today at Lakeville, Carleton county. She had gone there with her children on a visit. On Friday Mr. Tedford received a telegram stating that she was ill of influenza. He went to Lakeville on Saturday, and today Rev. H. R. Beyer received a telegram announcing Mrs. Tedford's death. Besides her husband she is survived by three small children.

Rev. Mr. Tedford is pastor of the Tabernacle Baptist church. He and Mrs. Tedford had not long been residents of the city but they had established themselves in the love of their people and had made many warm friends who will learn with sincere sorrow of her death.

ST. JOHN MAY LOSE THE FILM EXCHANGE

Object to Paying a City License Fee

At Meeting in Toronto Representatives Open Negotiations With Moncton—Say Provincial Tax Should Cover City

Toronto, Oct. 27.—The organization of motion picture exchanges in Canada, representative of nine of the principal film companies operating in the Dominion, have taken exception to the license which the authorities of St. John, N. B., purpose forcing the exchanges in that city to take out, and propose moving their business to Moncton.

At a meeting of representatives of the Famous Players Film Service, Limited, Monarch Film Company, Limited, Regal Film Limited, Metro Film Service Limited, Specialty Film Importing Company, Canadian Universal Film Company, Mutual Film Company, General Film Company, and Exhibitors Distributing Company, held here on Saturday, a telegram was sent to the city clerk and council of Moncton advising them of a decision to move from St. John, and asking confirmation of action of the Moncton council last spring to induce the exchanges located at St. John to move to that point.

The telegram points out that the members of the organization object to a city license fee being charged against exchanges operating in the three provinces, which pay a provincial license tax in each of the provinces.

It is estimated that various exchanges operating in the maritime provinces spend $100,000 a year in the city in which they are located.

Mayor Hayes said this afternoon that the license mentioned goes into effect when the new assessment act becomes operative at the first of the year. It was not known whether the council contemplated, as he had heard nothing of it for several months, and he could not say whether the council would take any further action in the matter.

BUY VICTORY BONDS—SERGEANT GERALD H. McGRATH IS MISSING

Elder Son of John McGrath Who is With American Army at the Front

John McGrath, painting engineer, who has been spending the summer here and latterly has been visiting his sister, Mrs. T. J. Cronin, Carmarthen street, received word on Saturday night that his son, Sergeant Gerald H. McGrath of 212 Boston street, Bejton, is reported missing at the front, where he was fighting as a member of "H" company 309th infantry, American army. A letter to his sister, Miss Eleanor McGrath, nurse at the Boston Eye and Ear Infirmary, reported that he was gassed and was in a Red Cross hospital the above week ago. But he had recovered and resumed his post.

Sergeant McGrath is only twenty-four years old. A younger brother, Jack, is now at West Point, in the Field Artillery department. Mr. McGrath and his family have spent recent summers very pleasantly here, and at Loch Lomond, and they have a very large number of warm friends in St. John, who will wish for early good news from Sergeant Gerald. Mr. McGrath will leave for Boston tonight to be at hand for the earliest news from his son.

BUY VICTORY BONDS—COUNCIL OF 33RD DEGREE MASONS WOULD HAVE MET HERE WERE IT NOT FOR GRIP

One of the important gatherings prevented by the influenza epidemic in this city and elsewhere would have been the annual meeting of the supreme council of the thirty-third degree Masons of Canada, which was slated for St. John about this time. Nothing very much had been said about the gathering because of the uncertainty of health matters and so its cancellation was not of wide public interest. However, had the council held its session here it would have brought to the city a distinguished assemblage of Canadians not often the good fortune of this far-eastern city to have within its gates. Among the delegates would probably have been Sir John M. Gibson, lieutenant-governor of Ontario.

One of the western Masons, who purposed attending the council's meetings here—a British Columbian—died of the influenza while in Moncton, where he was attending to some business. Had the Masonic meeting taken place most of the delegates would have been accompanied by their ladies, adding a social aspect to the affair not lacking in brilliancy. At one time the late Senator John V. Ellis was head of this exalted branch of the Masonic fraternity, during which tenure of office his official duties took him to Brussels, Belgium.

BUY VICTORY BONDS—SIGNALLER W. E. DAVIDSON HAS SUCCEumbed TO WOUND

A friend in this city has received word that Sgt. W. E. Davidson, son of Joseph Davidson of Kensington, P. E. I., has died of wounds sustained in action with a Canadian battery. Signaller Davidson was a student at Mount Allison and came to this city and joined a siege battery under command of Major Allen. While attached to that unit he made many friends in this city and all will sincerely regret to learn of his death.
