MORNING LOCALS

Harry Kilpatrick, son of Sergeant Kilpatrick, of the police force, has left for Kenora, where a position is awaiting him as assistant station agent.

Rev. A. W. Mehan received a telegram from Boston yesterday afternoon that his mother was ill there and he left on the Boston train last night. Mrs. Mehan has been visiting in Boston for some time but hitherto has been in good health and the news of her illness came as a surprise.

The committee which is arranging for the made-in-St. John exhibit at the exhibition here during the latter part of this month is meeting with fair success. Yesterday a census of some of the manufacturing concerns was made with the result that about thirty-three promised to have samples of their products in place.

While the construction work at Courtenay Bay was in progress yesterday, one of the rails gave way and a locomotive was upset. This will necessitate a delay in this part of the work, as it will take three or four days to relay the track, making it strong enough to again support the train.

In connection with the reception to be given the Duke and Duchess of Connaught and Princess Patricia, East St. John will be in line with the city proper. The children of that locality, including the boys of the Reformatory, and the Municipal Home. At the suggestion of G. F. Palmer, of the Norton Griffiths Co., Ltd., they are rehearsing several choruses to be sung at the reception to the Courtenay Bay works on the arrival of their royal highnesses in that vicinity on Monday
