

THE SEVENTH ANNUAL REPORT OF THE North Presbyterian Sabbath School

IN CONNECTION WITH
ST. ANDREW'S CHURCH, LONDON,
FOR THE YEAR 1894.

To the Session of St. Andrew's Church :

BRETHREN,—In submitting this, the Seventh Annual Report of our North Sabbath School, we acknowledge the goodness of God in many blessings bestowed upon us in connection with our work. We have had a year of uninterrupted systematic work along the line of the International Bible Lessons and the Shorter Catechism. A spirit of hearty co-operation has prevailed among us, and evidences of increasing interest in, and faithful study of, God's Word have been manifest.

Our school is now fairly well equipped, and we have tried to use all the means and opportunities our Heavenly Father has given us for the extension of His kingdom in the hearts of His children, and for the honor of His name.

We have also had some discouragements. All parents do not co-operate as they ought. This always results in a loss of efficiency in Sabbath School work. The removal of quite a number of our scholars has reduced our membership, and the resignation of several of our teachers has somewhat disorganized our classes. No department of our congregational work presents

S.

ss desires owment of

has been

has been
e supplied
f teaching,
us in days
f to our edifying.
e Library,
4 missing,
e have no

anks the w, Organ-
Librarian;
asurer.
g, Teacher.

.....$23 14
..... 9 16
..... 9 06
.....$41 36

$0 75
35
——$ 1 10
..... $40 26
ween May ER, Treas.