

SINN FEIN LETTERS REVEAL FIGHT FOR RECOGNITION IN U. S.

Inside Story of Political Battle Between De Valera and Justice Cohanlan Comes to Light With Messenger's Arrest.

PATRIOTISM OF AMERICAN FACTION OVERCAME THEIR IRISH SYMPATHIES

Friends of Irish Freedom, After Pledging Support, Desert and Defeat "Republic's" Plan for Incorporation of Plank at Chicago Convention, Johnson Forces Taking Them Into Camp—Handwriting on Five Letters Reveals Identity of Correspondents.

The Waldorf-Astoria Hotel, where Cohanlan presented his report of his action in Chicago. He stated his resolution would have been inserted in the Republican platform but for the president's action in forcing his. He contended that the question of an American one and not an Irish question, and as such should be left to Americans to deal with and that the president had no business in the same strain, and the motion to receive and approve Cohanlan's report was adopted by the meeting by a vote of 60 to 15. Dalton then proposed the same resolution at the Democratic convention at San Francisco. There were amendments offered to the effect that the P.O.I.F. should confer with the president and endeavor to draft a resolution that would be acceptable to both sides. This was vigorously objected to by Dalton. His resolution was carried.

De Valera Advised to Leave.

"This means, of course, that the same situation will obtain at San Francisco as obtained at Chicago as the president will not compromise on the question and intends to press forward with his plan for recognition. I am enclosing a copy of the Gaelic-American from which you will see the vicious line of attack the Cohanlan party has taken. On Tuesday, June 8, Bishop Gallagher of Detroit, called on the president and in the course of his conversation stated that Cohanlan's committee had decided to request the president to leave America, and had requested Bishop Turner, of Buffalo, to convey this, which Bishop Gallagher refused to do. Bishop Gallagher was then asked to do the job and he refused but mentioned the matter to the president. There is quite a lot of publicity on the whole trouble in the New York papers and I enclose a few cuttings bearing on the same, also a copy of the statement issued by the president.

"This ends the report that the president instructed me to make to you. One matter I take the liberty of suggesting myself and that is Lynch, who, as you know, is secretary of the P.O.I.F., should be requested to explain his actions in connection with this plot against the president. It is inexplicable to me how he can hold his position and represent the people of Cork. His action in retaining the former position and carrying out the instructions of Cohanlan makes him in my opinion and in the opinion of other members of the party unworthy to represent any Irish constituency and a grave menace to our cause. In venturing these remarks, I am not voicing the expressed opinion of the president as he has not spoken to me on the matter, but I do know that he feels very keenly about Diarmid's actions this week. For instance, very large quantities of the current issue of the Gaelic-American, containing an attack on the president, are being sent from Diarmid's office to members of the P. O. I. F. Yesterday he was present on the platform at the reunion of the Clan-na-Gael at which Cohanlan made the same attack on the president as appears in the Gaelic-American and entered no protest.

"The president will probably write a report in San Francisco which will be forwarded as soon as received by me. In the meantime, I trust this will assist you and the cabinet. It is still in Ireland he will be able to give you details of the various men mentioned in this report.

"JOHN NOONAN."

Letter four, from James O'Mara to Arthur Griffith, follows:

"Dear Friend—

"I have to report that owing to lack of co-operation from the P. O. I. F. President De Valera instructed me to use the bond organization in an effort to place the question of the recognition of the republic before the convention of the Republican party at Chicago. The president himself supervised matters in Chicago and shortly the result was this. A resolution calling for full and formal recognition was submitted to the subcommittee of the resolution committee by Walsh and Senator Mason. This stood a fair chance of acceptance, but the ground was undermined by the Cohanlan group, both before and immediately afterwards, by the introduction of a resolution of mere sympathy. The result was that there is now no Irish plank in the Republican party platform.

"This, unfortunately, is not the first time that this group of Irish sympathizers have defeated the effort of the president. The group includes Daniel Cohanlan, John Devoy, Diarmid Lynch and Richard Dalton.

"I have the honor to be

"Yours very truly,
"JAMES O'MARA."

Letter five, from Peter McSweeney to Terence McSweeney, lord mayor of Cork and commander of the Cork brigade of the Irish republican army, follows:

"My dear Mr. Terry—You probably will have seen John by now. Things have become more serious since John Devoy has recently charged De Valera with spending $50,000 of the money subscribed for bonds in the last few weeks. He charges the chief with preventing action on Ireland at the Republican convention. The facts are, President De Valera was welcomed from one end of this country to the other—North, South, East and West—and people demonstrated over and over again their sympathy and their belief in the justice of the Irish demand.

Cohanlan Down De Valera.

"De Valera went to the Republican

Valera is not an American. He is the leader of the Irish people and should take his instructions from them alone.

Split in America.

"It is to be hoped that the split which has taken place here will not affect Ireland. To help straighten matters here, a unanimous vote of confidence should be passed to De Valera by the Dail Eireann. He has accomplished more for Ireland in the twelve months he has been here than those who are opposed to him have in thirty years. I am including his statement on the situation. More later.

"Best love."

"PETER."

"P. S.—I forgot to mention about the man who may call to see you. He is not known very well here, and is considered not trustworthy. He is the only Irishman I know who refused to buy bonds. He claims to know Diarmid Lynch very well, but any message he may bring from Lynch to Ireland has not the sanction of the president. Lynch is the national secretary of the Friends of Irish Freedom, the officials of which are not working in co-operation with De Valera and members from Ireland.

"Lynch is the only one who is on the side of Devoy and why he should continue is a mystery to me. It would be very advisable if his constituents of Southeast Cork got together at once and passed a vote of confidence in De Valera and his associates from Ireland. Every effort should be made to uphold the chief and stop the movement in this country from being rent asunder. The name of the man mentioned above is Fogarty. More news soon.

"PETER."

There are nearly 100 ways of saying "my dear" in the Manx language. More than 60,000 people have returned to the ruins of Rheims, where they are mostly living in the miles of wine cellars.

OBITUARY

MISS MARY K. COOPER.

The many friends of Mr. and Mrs. Frank Cooper, 211 Rockland road, will sympathize with them in the death, yesterday morning, after a lingering illness of their daughter, Mary Kathleen, in her sixteenth year. She was of a particularly bright and cheerful disposition and very clever in her studies, being considered one of the most promising pupils in St. Peter's school. Besides her parents, she is survived by three brothers, Robert, Murray and Gregory, and two sisters, Helen and Constance. The funeral will be held on Wednesday morning at 8.15 from her parents' residence to Holy Trinity Church, where requiem high mass will be celebrated at 8.30.

Mrs. Mary Black
Newcastle, July 19.—Mrs. Mary Ann Black, relict of the late James Black, of Campbellton, passed away at her home here on Friday evening, after a lingering illness of consumption. Deceased was about fifty years of age and is survived by one son, Eghan Dempsey of South Nelson, also one sister. Another son passed away about six weeks ago.

Newark, N. J., July 16.—Sir Italia, before reported aground near Bergen Point, was floated yesterday, not previously, as has been reported. The Italia left Newark Tuesday afternoon for Havana with a miscellaneous cargo.
