"In the Lagarina Valley there have been artillery duels. The enemy again attempted, during the afternoon, a surprise attack at Buole Pass, which we repulsed with the bayonet. On the Pasubio sector there has been artillery activity. Repeated enemy attacks in the direction of the Upper Forni were brilliantly repulsed by our Alpine troops.

"In the zone between the Posina and the Upper Astico the violent artillery action continued yesterday. In the afternoon an enemy column, having crossed the Posina Torrent, attacked in the direction of Monte Spiri. Their attack was arrested on the extreme northern slopes of the mountain.

"Another column advanced toward Santubaldo, southeast of Arsiero, but was beaten and driven back in disorder beyond the Posins. On Settecommunithere is strong enemy pressure against our wing positions at Monte Cengia and on the little valley of Campomulo.

"The situation in the Sugans Valley is unchanged. On the Upper But there has been the customary enemy artillery fire.

"Along the Isonzo front our detachments continue their bold incursions, in one instance capturing a bomb thrower. On Tuesday and Wednesday our air squadrons raided the Assa Valley, dropping bombs on camps and depots with effective results. The aviators returned catcher.

Germans Admit Loss.

Berlin, June 1, via London, 4.53 p.m.—
The text of today's army headquarters statement is as follows:

"Western front: Lively artillery activity continued yesterday north and south of Lens.

"On the left bank of the Meuse the French brought forward considerable forces in the evening for an attack on Dead Man's Hill and Caurettes heights. Southeast of Dead Man's Hill the French obtained a foothold in our first line trenches over an extent of 400 metres. Otherwise their repeated assaults were repulsed with the heaviest losses.

"On the right bank of the Meuse the artillery duels continue.

"East of Ober-Sept (southwest of Altkirch) a German reconnoitering detachment penetrated into French positions over a width of about 350 metres and a (Continued on page 8.)

Winnipeg, June 1.—The first step in the challenge to be made by the Hudson's Bay Company to the operation of the manitobs temperance act was taken this morning when they refused to close their retail store, and displayed their liquor, contrary to the provisions of the act. The Manitoba government acceptated the challenge and the attorney-general's department ordered the confiscation of the retail stock, which represents nearly $1,000.

It is understood that the company invited the action taken by the government in order to set ap a test case, which will involve the question of the privileges to trade without interference, as is claimed by the company will now take action against the government in the civil courts for interfering with its rights.

The Germans have switched their offensive from the region of Le Mort Homme, northwest of Verdun, to the sector between the Thiaumont Farm and Vaux, northeast of the fortress, and have succeeded here in entering the French lirst line trenches between Fort Douaumont and the Vaux pond.

The attack was made over a front ceded by violent artillery prepara-tions. The French met the German onslaughts with their machine guns and succeeded in holding back the and succeeded in holding back the attacking forces everywhere, except at the point between Fort Douaumont and the Vaux pond. Heavy losses were inflicted on the Teutons, according to Paris.

The heavy fighting around Le Mort Homme and the Avocourt wood has dwindled to intermittent bombardments since the repulse of German attacks and the launching of a counter attack by the French, which gave them German trenches 400 metres in extent southeast of Le Mort Homme,

GERMAN VICTORY IN VOSGES.

GERMAN VICTORY IN VOSGES.

The activity of the artillery on the remainder of the front in France also has lessened in violence. In the Vosges mountains, near Altkirch, the Germans report the occupation of French positions 350 metres uong and about 350 metres deep, and the capture of prisoners and booty.

The Italians, according to Rome, continue to hold back attacks by the Austrians at various points along the Tyrol front. Especially bitter fighting has taken place in the region of the Posina Torrent and southeast of Arsiero, where the Austrians either were stopped or driven back in disorder. Lively artillery duels are in progress in the Lagarina valley, and between the Posina and the upper Astico rivers.

Artillery engagements and infantry firing is in progress along the whole of the Russian front, but no changes in the positions of the Russians or the Teutons have been reported.

The Turks, taking the offensive at three points in Asia Minor, against the Russians, have temporarily, at lease, brought the Russian advance toward Mesopotamia to a standstill. the Russians, have temporarily, at lease, brought the Russian advance toward Mesopotamia to a standardil. All the Turkish attacks were repulsed, except at Mamakhatum, 50 miles west of Erzerum, which was evacuated by the Russians. Here the fighting was over a front of about twenty miles. Attempts by the Turks, who are said to be heavily reinforced by the Austrians and Germans, to press back the Russians near Baiburt and Diarbeko, failed.

That the Serbs recently reported as having landed at Saloniki are now on the Entente Allied front, on the Greek-Serbia border, is indicated by the latest German official communication. The communication says that a weak attack made by the Entente at the southern end of Lake Doiran was repulsed, and that northeast of th lake Serbians, wearing British uniforms, were made prisoners.

The Germans have several times bombarded the railway between ftiga and Ikskull. The railway follows the right bank of the Dvina, within comparatively easy range of the German batteries, a few miles westward. They have also made a more or less serious effort to cut the Mitaur railway immediately north of Jacobstadt, but without success.

Near Gliadki, south of Tarnopol, and at Buczacs, on the Stripa, the Austrians undertook an offensive, but were forced back to their original positions.

Russians Busily Engaged.

Petrograd, via London, June 1, 6 p. m.—The official communication, issued from general headquarters today, reads:

"Along the whole front there were artillery duels and rifle fire. Two of our air squadrons raided points behind the enemy lines. One squadron of six machines bombarded the region around the town of Soly, northwest of Smorgon; the other, of fourteen machines, bombarded Manievichy station (north of Lutsk) and the Sarna-Kovel railway. In the first case 48 bombs were dropped, and in the second 68, some of them being incendiary. All the aviators returned uninjured despite a heavy fire.
