

1000 - page 57

String Quartet in C minor

Sept. 1914

Ernest MacMillan

Carl Fischer, New York
No. 22-24 lines.

Sir Ernest MacMillan was born in Mimico, Ontario. He conducted the Toronto Symphony for 25 years, and headed such organizations as the Toronto Mendelssohn Choir (conductor), Faculty of Music at the University of Toronto (Dean), Royal Conservatory of Music (Principal), CAPAC, Canadian Music Council, Canadian Music Centre, Canada Council (founding Chairman), among others.

SCORE: excerpt from String Quartet in C minor. This work was begun in September, 1914, one month after the start of the First World War, and completed after the war in 1921. Recently, it was recorded on the Deutch Gramophone label by the Amadeus Quartet. Score reprinted by permission of the Estate of Sir Ernest MacMillan. PAGE 22

PORTRAIT BY KARSH