

themselves in the work of the school during the past year. The members on the Roll and the average attendance show an increase over the year previous

Parents can greatly help the teachers and benefit their children by seeing that the lessons are studied at home and that as far as possible, their children come to school on time and prepared.

May the year upon which we have entered be one of increased fervour of spirit and diligence in the work which the Master gives us to do.

On behalf of the Teachers and Officers,
THOMAS HASSARD,
Superintendent.
