

The Commissioner's New Year's Message

With 1992 now behind us, it is appropriate to pause and reflect on what we have accomplished during the preceding year, as a nation, as members of Canada's national police force and as individuals. I believe you will agree that we have much to be proud and thankful for at all levels. Our participation across the land in celebrations for Canada's 125th Birthday, the 50th Anniversary of the "St. Roch's" historic navigation of the Northwest Passage and the Toronto Blue Jays becoming the first Canadian baseball team to win a World Series, are just a few of the many memorable events that have contributed to making 1992 a history-making year.

I would also like to take this opportunity to express my sincere hope for the safe and speedy return home of our members in Bosnia-Hercegovina and Croatia, who are participating in the Force's second United Nations peace-keeping mission.

It is with great pleasure that I join the staff of the "Quarterly" in extending to all readers and contributors our wishes for a joyous holiday season and a safe and prosperous New Year.

N.D. Inkster Commissioner
