	missioners allow 200 l. The claim of 223 l. for so many days' detention in prison, the Commissioners do not consider as coming within their province. N. B.—Since the Report on this case was made, the Commissioners have examined Colonel Wetherall, c. B. It appears that, although the claimant was mistaken for his brother at the time he was taken, there was a warrant issued against him personally. At the time of his capture he was in a state of complete intoxication, and resisted the troops in the most violent manner, with a sword in his hand. The Commissioners wish this case to be reserved for further inquiry. (signed) P. E. L. E. A. C. C. T.
121.	Marie Ayotte, of St. Denis. This case not being closed, the same will be reported subsequently.
122.	Jean Oliver Leclère, of St. Charles - - - - - This is a loyal Canadian, whose property was pillaged by the rebels of St. Charles in November last (1837).	13 10 -	13 10 -
123.	François Chicou Duvert, M.D., of St. Charles - - - The claimant, after strict inquiry, not appearing to come within the terms of the Ordinance, his claim is rejected.	216 11 6
124.	Charles Dorion, of St. Eustache. This case, not being closed, will form part of a subsequent Report.
125.	Prudent Malot, of Belœil. The same as to this case.
126.	Prudent Racine, of St. Charles - - - - - The evidence in this claim not being satisfactory, after due consideration, the same is dismissed.	4 4 9
127.	François Garant, of St. Denis - - - - - This is a loyal Canadian, who after the action with the rebels under Wolfred Nelson in November 1837, in the first instance saved a wounded soldier's life from three Canadians who levelled their pieces at him, and afterwards conveyed him to the house of Mesdemoiselles Dorimcourt, where he was kindly treated as before-mentioned. (See No. 25.) His house was burned on the 2d of December by the troops in consequence of its proximity to that of Guillaume Dillaire. (See No. 24.)	122 5 -	122 5 -
128.	J. B. Tétro, dit Ducharme, of St. Denis - - - - The claimant not coming within the terms of the Ordinance, the claim is rejected.	61 18 7½
129.	Veuve Augustin Paradis, of St. Charles. This case not being closed, it will be reported hereafter.
130.	Emilie Paradis, of St. Charles. The same as to this case.
131.	Julie Paradis, of St. Charles. The same as to this case.
