

A Man is Judged By the Stationery He Uses.

Slovenly correspondence, careless in dress, and of phrase, is not only bad form—it indicates indifferent breeding.

It is equally gauche to write personal letters upon one's employer's business stationery. Well-bred men conduct their private correspondence upon high-grade stationery, embossed with their private address—such a stationery, for instance, as

Crown Vellum

Crown Vellum is a paper of strong texture, heavy and fine of finish. It is sold by all good Canadian stationers, but if you have any difficulty in securing it, write to our office nearest you, and we will supply you through a nearby stationer.

Best for Clubs

Because of the hard and continuous usage to which English Billiard Tables are subjected to in Clubs, they should be equipped with Steel Vacuum Cushions. These cushions wear longer than the ordinary kind. They are impervious to climatic extremes, do not work loose, or require repair experience. They speed up the game, too.

BILLIARDS

played on tables so equipped are made doubly enjoyable. Champion professional players endorse Steel Vacuum Cushions. For further particulars, address

"Fifty Switzerlands in One"

A distinguished traveler, familiar with the far-famed Swiss Mountains, upon making his first trip through the Canadian Rockies, over the route of the Canadian Pacific Railway enthusiastically exclaimed, "This is fifty Switzerlands in one." The comparison simply suggests the beauty, grandeur and vastness of this little-known region. Less than four days from New York. Luxurious trains, Observation cars; C. P. R. hotels and Swiss guides at all principal resorts.
