

WANTED: To give my GRASS HILL COAL a trial and be satisfied. CONCRETE CO.—8 KING EAST.

SIXTH YEAR REFORM, ALSO REVENUE.

MR. BOULANGER'S DESIRE FOR A CONTINENTAL WAR.

All German Goods Tabled in France.—The military presence of the Emperor's army in the provinces of Alsace and Lorraine has been a constant reminder to the French people of the need for a continental war. Mr. Boulanger, however, disowns any connection with the papers. Mr. Lavedon, the military critic, writes to the Figaro that Gen. Boulanger has prepared a well conceived plan in conjunction with a staff officer of high rank for a continental campaign. The article says Gen. Boulanger desires war, not for the purpose of recovering Alsace, not to gratify personal ambition, but as a step leading to the solution of social questions. The strictest taboo of everything German is being observed. Mr. Lockroy, Minister of Commerce, has ordered the police to prosecute persons selling boxes of toys imported from Germany and containing a map of France without Alsace.

SARINA'S ALLEGED DYNAMITE.

Chas. A. Hand Arraigned and Set Back for Trial. SARINA, Oct. 12.—Chas. A. Hand was arraigned to-day at the Assizes here, Judge O'Connor presiding, on the charge of having hired one "Nip" McDonald to blow up J. G. McCrea's house in June. He was also arraigned on the charge of having dynamite in his possession with intent to blow up Inspector Palmer's residence three weeks ago. The grand jury brought three indictments against Hand in each case. "Nip" McDonald is represented as living at different times in Fort Huron, Detroit and other places. At one time he was suspected of the murder of Don Evers of Port Huron who died about a year ago. When arraigned Hand was nervous and recovered himself. The trial will probably not be commenced before Thursday morning. Deputy Attorney-General Johnston is here for the Crown and H. B. Oiler of Toronto is expected for the defence.

LABEL SUTS IN MONTREAL.

One Check Against Le Monde, La Minerve and the Herald. MONTREAL, Oct. 12.—Le Monde here stated that $2000 had been offered to Mr. Lemay, shoemaker, in presence of L. O. David to induce him to get Mr. Gravel to resign his candidature and secure the work of the Liberal, Mr. David has taken an action for $10,000 damages against that paper. Mr. Stephens is also suing the same paper for $10,000 damages. The case of Ald. Donovan vs. the Montreal Herald was continued to-day, when evidence was concluded and the case taken on delivery.

THE BLOODS AND THE PLAGUES.

Precautions Against Epidemics on Montana Territory. WASHINGTON, Oct. 12.—A communication from Minister West has been transmitted by the Department of State to the War Department, calling attention to the threatening state of affairs on the boundary line between Montana and the British possessions and suggesting the adoption of measures calculated to prevent rising epidemics and the spread of bloods and plagues. It is presumed by the War Department that the general command of the Montana Territory has already taken steps to guard against further epidemics by issuing a sufficient force of the militia.

REVENUE AND THE PLAGUES.

There is a man at Milan who does not sleep. This unfortunate, who has no doubt been infected by his experiment by M. Socoli, has been taken to the hospital. He is 42 years old. By profession he is a porter in the Piazza Montanara, spending his leisure hours in reading books. On three consecutive days he has presented himself as a newspaper editor, asking for the insertion of a paragraph to the effect that he has not steps for the night. He has been taken to the hospital. He has a fever and is unable to sleep. He has been taken to the hospital. He has a fever and is unable to sleep.

REVENUE AND THE PLAGUES.

Chicago, Oct. 12.—The managers of the Northwestern Traffic Association lines today resolved to form a bond pool including all through business from Chicago with the exception of coal, cement, lime and plaster. A committee of the general freight agents was appointed to work on the details.

A Parting Presentation.

CHATHAM, Oct. 12.—Mr. Harry Mercer, who is leaving here to assume the agency of the Chicago, Milwaukee & St. Paul Railway at Detroit, was presented with a testimonial by a handsome silver watch service accompanied by an address expressive of esteem for him as a citizen and wishing him success in his new calling.

Mr. Beecher's Church Standing.

LONDON, Oct. 12.—The Congregational Union assembled at Norwich to-day. During the proceedings the Rev. John Hunter made a resolution expressing the regret of the assembly that it had no opportunity to welcome the Rev. Henry Ward Beecher. Mr. Beecher is invited to address the assembly on Wednesday. A warm discussion of the resolution was carried.

A Suit For a Million.

MONTREAL, Oct. 12.—The Hon. D. N. Stanton and A. B. Baugh, who are suing the Canadian Atlantic Railway Company for $1,000,000, were heard to-day by the Superior Court. The plaintiffs were awarded contracts for two sections of railway, and were awarded damages for the loss of their business. The case is expected to be heard in the next few days.

The '84 Aldermen of New York.

NEW YORK, Oct. 12.—Ex-Aldermen Cleary and Kirk were heard to-day by the Superior Court. The case is expected to be heard in the next few days.

CABLE NOTES.

London, Oct. 12.—The British government has been advised that the Austrian anarchists are treated with mercenary severity. A communication has been received from the British government that the Austrian anarchists are treated with mercenary severity.

THE KIDS APPERS IN RUSSIA.

Arrival of Four Bulgarian Consignments at St. Petersburg. St. Petersburg, Oct. 12.—Four leaders of the party who were engaged in the kidnapping of Prince Alexander of Bulgaria, have arrived in St. Petersburg. They are M. Demostoff, M. Palkoff, M. Trankoff and M. Kovoff. They attribute the success of the counter revolution, which restored Prince Alexander temporarily to the throne, to the faithfulness of the Bulgarian people. They are in St. Petersburg for the purpose of recovering Alsace, not to gratify personal ambition, but as a step leading to the solution of social questions.

A Russian Correspondent Arrested.

Sofia, Oct. 12.—The Bulgarian authorities have arrested and sent to Constantinople a Bulgarian newspaper correspondent who accompanied Gen. Kaulbars. A correspondent of a London news organization has been expelled from Bulgaria by order of the Bulgarian government.

Bulgaria's Begun.

Gen. Kaulbars, the newly appointed "diplomatic agent" of Russia at Sofia, is a member of an ancient baronial family of German origin, whose estates are situated in the province of Easthild. Like most of his Russo-German countrymen he is a Lutheran. Baron Kaulbars is now about 45 years of age, he is a well-to-do man, and has a military education. He is considered one of the most capable members. In 1878 he accompanied the Austrian troops during the campaign in Bosnia and the Herzegovina, and subsequently he carried out a military mission to Montenegro, much to the satisfaction of his government. Some years ago, while still bearing the title of colonel, he was appointed military attaché, or "military agent," as the Russians call it, at Vienna. He has been in Sofia since his appointment as diplomatic agent. During the war between Serbia and Bulgaria he led the latter's triumphant entry into Ploek. The latter, which attracted much attention, was the first time that a Russian military officer was instrumental in bringing about the armistice. In December, 1885, Gen. Kaulbars was elected to the post of chief of the international military commission, which settled the boundaries of the neutral zone between the belligerent forces of Serbia and Bulgaria. It was his brother, who three years ago, while acting as minister for Sofia, obtained much unfavorable notoriety through his conduct of the trial of Prince Alexander during the present year's coronation, had to make on his part.

Living Without Sleep.

There is a man at Milan who does not sleep. This unfortunate, who has no doubt been infected by his experiment by M. Socoli, has been taken to the hospital. He is 42 years old. By profession he is a porter in the Piazza Montanara, spending his leisure hours in reading books. On three consecutive days he has presented himself as a newspaper editor, asking for the insertion of a paragraph to the effect that he has not steps for the night. He has been taken to the hospital. He has a fever and is unable to sleep. He has been taken to the hospital. He has a fever and is unable to sleep.

A Handy Boy.

Boy—Dister, do you want to hire a boy? Young Dister (dubiously)—What can you do? Boy—Write obituary notices, and I can do anything else you like. Boy—Come along to-morrow morning at 9.

Erasmus Wiman's Final Statement.

NEW YORK, Oct. 12.—The Star states that it is the forthcoming election of directors of the Western Union Telegraph Company, Erasmus Wiman is to be elected from the board. Wiman is to be elected from the board. Wiman is to be elected from the board.

Aid for the Evicted.

DUBLIN, Oct. 12.—At the regular meeting of the National League to-day Secretary Harrington said many landlords were making generous reductions in rents, but a large number of writers and editors were making no such concessions. The League is making a list of the names of the landlords who are making no such concessions. The League is making a list of the names of the landlords who are making no such concessions.

The Pleasurers of French Journalism.

PARIS, Oct. 12.—A duel with swords has been fought between M. Bouché, editor of the Figaro, and M. Dyon, a well-known pleasurer. The trouble was caused by comments on Count de Paris, which were made by M. Bouché in the Figaro. M. Dyon was wounded in the arm.

A Postmaster's Defalcations.

TRON, N. Y., Oct. 12.—Assistant Postmaster Burrage has not been seen at the postoffice since Saturday, when he sent word that he was confined to his home by illness. Yesterday the New York postmaster called for a receipt of $7000 and then he was quietly seen. Burrage must have taken the amount in bulk. It is reported that he is in Canada. Whether any additional sums will be found missing on investigation of his accounts remains to be seen.

UNIONED SEAMEN NEWS.

Rear Admiral Edward L. Nichols died at Point Fort, yesterday afternoon. Major Cook one of the jurors in the Anarchist trials at Chicago, has been threatened with assassination. There is no longer any doubt that ex-Ald. Seales, a New York Alderman of '84, has fled to Canada. The Manhattan Elevated Railroad, New York, will not run on the Sixth Avenue road to 125th Street on November 1. There is a general strike among the coopers at Minneapolis for an increase in wages from 10 cents per barrel. Seven hundred men are on strike. The strike of the Chicago yards has spread the highest man to go being 100 employes of the Union Stock and Transit Company. The shop has been closed. Traffic does not occur in the lower Mississippi district yesterday, and much damage was done. Communication with New Orleans is cut off. The French-African cable has been connected to Genoa. Three cases of cholera have occurred at Rome. One patient died. The Austrian anarchists are treated with mercenary severity. A communication has been received from the British government that the Austrian anarchists are treated with mercenary severity.

Advance in the Price of Coal.

While the general public have been trying to discover the origin of the word "obituary" the coal dealers have advanced the price twenty-five cents per ton. In contrast to the coal dealer, who is not averse to a heavy gain in blowing and the vessel is in a dangerous situation.

KEEP THYSELF PURE.

THE WHITE CROSS ARMY GATHERING STRENGTH IN TORONTO.

Another Public Meeting in St. George's Church. The "White Cross Army" was inaugurated in England by the good old Bishop of Durham in 1884. Since then it has grown to large proportions in Britain, and is beginning to be felt in the United States and Canada. The army, according to the custom in England, can be worked as an auxiliary of a Bible Class, a Workingmen's Club, or other similar organizations. Up to the present time the greater part of its members belong to the Church of England Societies, yet everyone and all are free to join. The objects of the army, which are fully set forth in a series of lectures given by Miss Ellice Hopkins, can be fairly well judged of by a perusal of the pledge which a new member takes, and which is printed below. The army is a work for as possible to secure parliamentary enactments for the protection of young girls and the punishment of delinquents. Its members are supposed to do everything in their power to protect women from every kind of wrong in every way.

PROVINCIAL HEALTH MATTERS.

Case of Smallpox Reported from the Town of Trenton. The Provincial Board of Health yesterday finished the business of this session. They present Dr. Covert, (Chairman), Dr. Boyer, (Secretary), Dr. Young, Dr. Cassidy, Dr. O'Brien, and Dr. Macdonald. A letter was received from Medical Health Officer McLellan of Trenton, stating that the infant child of a sempstress who had recently come to this city, was developing smallpox. The case of smallpox. Every precaution was being taken. Principal Dymond of the Blind Asylum at Bradford wrote saying that the children of the institution were being favored and that no new cases had occurred.

THE WHITE CROSS.

With the help of God I pledge myself to travel and to work for as possible to secure parliamentary enactments for the protection of young girls and the punishment of delinquents. Its members are supposed to do everything in their power to protect women from every kind of wrong in every way.

AMUSEMENTS.

Coming Attractions at the Opera House and the Pavilion. In England ballad concerts are a regular feature. To endeavor to give the public to hear their favorite artists, the English ballad concert is being introduced to this city. The concert will be given by the English ballad concert. The concert will be given by the English ballad concert.

MEMORIAL TABLETS FOR LEUT. FITCH AND PIERCE.

It will be remembered that the officers of the Royal Grenadier Guards in the late war, the late Lieut. Fitch. It was thought at the time that some similar mark should be made in memory of the late Lieut. Fitch. The Colonel was opposed to making any direct call on the citizens, who had already done so much for the Regiment, and then proceeded to work quietly. The late Lieut. Fitch was a man of high character and a man of high character. The late Lieut. Fitch was a man of high character and a man of high character.

THE GREAT REFORMER—REV. SAM JONES.

Editor World: I send you a few lines on the powers of Rev. Sam Jones and I hope you will publish them. I hope you will publish them. I hope you will publish them.

OUR OWN COUNTRY.

Canadian Pacific Railway returns for last week $221,000, and for 1885, $182,000. The Canadian Pacific Railway returns for last week $221,000, and for 1885, $182,000. The Canadian Pacific Railway returns for last week $221,000, and for 1885, $182,000.

THE TWENTY-SECOND ANNUAL MEETING.

The twenty-second annual meeting of the Young Men's Christian Association was held at the Hamilton Homestead. The meeting was held at the Hamilton Homestead. The meeting was held at the Hamilton Homestead.

THE TWENTY-SECOND ANNUAL MEETING.

The twenty-second annual meeting of the Young Men's Christian Association was held at the Hamilton Homestead. The meeting was held at the Hamilton Homestead. The meeting was held at the Hamilton Homestead.

THE TWENTY-SECOND ANNUAL MEETING.

The twenty-second annual meeting of the Young Men's Christian Association was held at the Hamilton Homestead. The meeting was held at the Hamilton Homestead. The meeting was held at the Hamilton Homestead.

THE TWENTY-SECOND ANNUAL MEETING.

The twenty-second annual meeting of the Young Men's Christian Association was held at the Hamilton Homestead. The meeting was held at the Hamilton Homestead. The meeting was held at the Hamilton Homestead.

THE WORK BEARING FRUIT.

Over 100 Penitent Sinners Come Forward. The revival in the Mutual-Benefit risk was marked by important results last night. Mr. Jones preached there to the unwearying of the "Why will you continue in sin?" He asked them if it was indifference, or recklessness, or if it was because they were satisfied with their present condition; if it was because they led a sort of compromise life; if it was because a spiritual apathy had overcome them, or if it was because they were not brought into possession of their souls. He concluded by urging them with great earnestness to decide at once for the better life. He then asked, "Will 500 men stand up and say 'I want to be saved?' He took the audience in sections and one after another stood up until over 150 had come forward. Mr. Jones said, "I have seen many men who have been brought into possession of their souls, and I have seen many men who have been brought into possession of their souls. He concluded by urging them with great earnestness to decide at once for the better life. He then asked, "Will 500 men stand up and say 'I want to be saved?' He took the audience in sections and one after another stood up until over 150 had come forward. Mr. Jones said, "I have seen many men who have been brought into possession of their souls, and I have seen many men who have been brought into possession of their souls. He concluded by urging them with great earnestness to decide at once for the better life. He then asked, "Will 500 men stand up and say 'I want to be saved?' He took the audience in sections and one after another stood up until over 150 had come forward. Mr. Jones said, "I have seen many men who have been brought into possession of their souls, and I have seen many men who have been brought into possession of their souls. He concluded by urging them with great earnestness to decide at once for the better life. He then asked, "Will 500 men stand up and say 'I want to be saved?' He took the audience in sections and one after another stood up until over 150 had come forward. Mr. Jones said, "I have seen many men who have been brought into possession of their souls, and I have seen many men who have been brought into possession of their souls. He concluded by urging them with great earnestness to decide at once for the better life. He then asked, "Will 500 men stand up and say 'I want to be saved?' He took the audience in sections and one after another stood up until over 150 had come forward. Mr. Jones said, "I have seen many men who have been brought into possession of their souls, and I have seen many men who have been brought into possession of their souls. He concluded by urging them with great earnestness to decide at once for the better life. He then asked, "Will 500 men stand up and say 'I want to be saved?' He took the audience in sections and one after another stood up until over 150 had come forward. Mr. Jones said, "I have seen many men who have been brought into possession of their souls, and I have seen many men who have been brought into possession of their souls. He concluded by urging them with great earnestness to decide at once for the better life. He then asked, "Will 500 men stand up and say 'I want to be saved?' He took the audience in sections and one after another stood up until over 150 had come forward. Mr. Jones said, "I have seen many men who have been brought into possession of their souls, and I have seen many men who have been brought into possession of their souls. He concluded by urging them with great earnestness to decide at once for the better life. He then asked, "Will 500 men stand up and say 'I want to be saved?' He took the audience in sections and one after another stood up until over 150 had come forward. Mr. Jones said, "I have seen many men who have been brought into possession of their souls, and I have seen many men who have been brought into possession of their souls. He concluded by urging them with great earnestness to decide at once for the better life. He then asked, "Will 500 men stand up and say 'I want to be saved?' He took the audience in sections and one after another stood up until over 150 had come forward. Mr. Jones said, "I have seen many men who have been brought into possession of their souls, and I have seen many men who have been brought into possession of their souls. He concluded by urging them with great earnestness to decide at once for the better life. He then asked, "Will 500 men stand up and say 'I want to be saved?' He took the audience in sections and one after another stood up until over 150 had come forward. Mr. Jones said, "I have seen many men who have been brought into possession of their souls, and I have seen many men who have been brought into possession of their souls. He concluded by urging them with great earnestness to decide at once for the better life. He then asked, "Will 500 men stand up and say 'I want to be saved?' He took the audience in sections and one after another stood up until over 150 had come forward. Mr. Jones said, "I have seen many men who have been brought into possession of their souls, and I have seen many men who have been brought into possession of their souls. He concluded by urging them with great earnestness to decide at once for the better life. He then asked, "Will 500 men stand up and say 'I want to be saved?' He took the audience in sections and one after another stood up until over 150 had come forward. Mr. Jones said, "I have seen many men who have been brought into possession of their souls, and I have seen many men who have been brought into possession of their souls. He concluded by urging them with great earnestness to decide at once for the better life. He then asked, "Will 500 men stand up and say 'I want to be saved?' He took the audience in sections and one after another stood up until over 150 had come forward. Mr. Jones said, "I have seen many men who have been brought into possession of their souls, and I have seen many men who have been brought into possession of their souls. He concluded by urging them with great earnestness to decide at once for the better life. He then asked, "Will 500 men stand up and say 'I want to be saved?' He took the audience in sections and one after another stood up until over 150 had come forward. Mr. Jones said, "I have seen many men who have been brought into possession of their souls, and I have seen many men who have been brought into possession of their souls. He concluded by urging them with great earnestness to decide at once for the better life. He then asked, "Will 500 men stand up and say 'I want to be saved?' He took the audience in sections and one after another stood up until over 150 had come forward. Mr. Jones said, "I have seen many men who have been brought into possession of their souls, and I have seen many men who have been brought into possession of their souls. He concluded by urging them with great earnestness to decide at once for the better life. He then asked, "Will 500 men stand up and say 'I want to be saved?' He took the audience in sections and one after another stood up until over 150 had come forward. Mr. Jones said, "I have seen many men who have been brought into possession of their souls, and I have seen many men who have been brought into possession of their souls. He concluded by urging them with great earnestness to decide at once for the better life. He then asked, "Will 500 men stand up and say 'I want to be saved?' He took the audience in sections and one after another stood up until over 150 had come forward. Mr. Jones said, "I have seen many men who have been brought into possession of their souls, and I have seen many men who have been brought into possession of their souls. He concluded by urging them with great earnestness to decide at once for the better life. He then asked, "Will 500 men stand up and say 'I want to be saved?' He took the audience in sections and one after another stood up until over 150 had come forward. Mr. Jones said, "I have seen many men who have been brought into possession of their souls, and I have seen many men who have been brought into possession of their souls. He concluded by urging them with great earnestness to decide at once for the better life. He then asked, "Will 500 men stand up and say 'I want to be saved?' He took the audience in sections and one after another stood up until over 150 had come forward. Mr. Jones said, "I have seen many men who have been brought into possession of their souls, and I have seen many men who have been brought into possession of their souls. He concluded by urging them with great earnestness to decide at once for the better life. He then asked, "Will 500 men stand up and say 'I want to be saved?' He took the audience in sections and one after another stood up until over 150 had come forward. Mr. Jones said, "I have seen many men who have been brought into possession of their souls, and I have seen many men who have been brought into possession of their souls. He concluded by urging them with great earnestness to decide at once for the better life. He then asked, "Will 500 men stand up and say 'I want to be saved?' He took the audience in sections and one after another stood up until over 150 had come forward. Mr. Jones said, "I have seen many men who have been brought into possession of their souls, and I have seen many men who have been brought into possession of their souls. He concluded by urging them with great earnestness to decide at once for the better life. He then asked, "Will 500 men stand up and say 'I want to be saved?' He took the audience in sections and one after another stood up until over 150 had come forward. Mr. Jones said, "I have seen many men who have been brought into possession of their souls, and I have seen many men who have been brought into possession of their souls. He concluded by urging them with great earnestness to decide at once for the better life. He then asked, "Will 500 men stand up and say 'I want to be saved?' He took the audience in sections and one after another stood up until over 150 had come forward. Mr. Jones said, "I have seen many men who have been brought into possession of their souls, and I have seen many men who have been brought into possession of their souls. He concluded by urging them with great earnestness to decide at once for the better life. He then asked, "Will 500 men stand up and say 'I want to be saved?' He took the audience in sections and one after another stood up until over 150 had come forward. Mr. Jones said, "I have seen many men who have been brought into possession of their souls, and I have seen many men who have been brought into possession of their souls. He concluded by urging them with great earnestness to decide at once for the better life. He then asked, "Will 500 men stand up and say 'I want to be saved?' He took the audience in sections and one after another stood up until over 150 had come forward. Mr. Jones said, "I have seen many men who have been brought into possession of their souls, and I have seen many men who have been brought into possession of their souls. He concluded by urging them with great earnestness to decide at once for the better life. He then asked, "Will 500 men stand up and say 'I want to be saved?' He took the audience in sections and one after another stood up until over 150 had come forward. Mr. Jones said, "I have seen many men who have been brought into possession of their souls, and I have seen many men who have been brought into possession of their souls. He concluded by urging them with great earnestness to decide at once for the better life. He then asked, "Will 500 men stand up and say 'I want to be saved?' He took the audience in sections and one after another stood up until over 150 had come forward. Mr. Jones said, "I have seen many men who have been brought into possession of their souls, and I have seen many men who have been brought into possession of their souls. He concluded by urging them with great earnestness to decide at once for the better life. He then asked, "Will 500 men stand up and say 'I want to be saved?' He took the audience in sections and one after another stood up until over 150 had come forward. Mr. Jones said, "I have seen many men who have been brought into possession of their souls, and I have seen many men who have been brought into possession of their souls. He concluded by urging them with great earnestness to decide at once for the better life. He then asked, "Will 500 men stand up and say 'I want to be saved?' He took the audience in sections and one after another stood up until over 150 had come forward. Mr. Jones said, "I have seen many men who have been brought into possession of their souls, and I have seen many men who have been brought into possession of their souls. He concluded by urging them with great earnestness to decide at once for the better life. He then asked, "Will 500 men stand up and say 'I want to be saved?' He took the audience in sections and one after another stood up until over 150 had come forward. Mr. Jones said, "I have seen many men who have been brought into possession of their souls, and I have seen many men who have been brought into possession of their souls. He concluded by urging them with great earnestness to decide at once for the better life. He then asked, "Will 500 men stand up and say 'I want to be saved?' He took the audience in sections and one after another stood up until over 150 had come forward. Mr. Jones said, "I have seen many men who have been brought into possession of their souls, and I have seen many men who have been brought into possession of their souls. He concluded by urging them with great earnestness to decide at once for the better life. He then asked, "Will 500 men stand up and say 'I want to be saved?' He took the audience in sections and one after another stood up until over 150 had come forward. Mr. Jones said, "I have seen many men who have been brought into possession of their souls, and I have seen many men who have been brought into possession of their souls. He concluded by urging them with great earnestness to decide at once for the better life. He then asked, "Will 500 men stand up and say 'I want to be saved?' He took the audience in sections and one after another stood up until over 150 had come forward. Mr. Jones said, "I have seen many men who have been brought into possession of their souls, and I have seen many men who have been brought into possession of their souls. He concluded by urging them with great earnestness to decide at once for the better life. He then asked, "Will 500 men stand up and say 'I want to be saved?' He took the audience in sections and one after another stood up until over 150 had come forward. Mr. Jones said, "I have seen many men who have been brought into possession of their souls, and I have seen many men who have been brought into possession of their souls. He concluded by urging them with great earnestness to decide at once for the better life. He then asked, "Will 500 men stand up and say 'I want to be saved?' He took the audience in sections and one after another stood up until over 150 had come forward. Mr. Jones said, "I have seen many men who have been brought into possession of their souls, and I have seen many men who have been brought into possession of their souls. He concluded by urging them with great earnestness to decide at once for the better life. He then asked, "Will 500 men stand up and say 'I want to be saved?' He took the audience in sections and one after another stood up until over 150 had come forward. Mr. Jones said, "I have seen many men who have been brought into possession of their souls, and I have seen many men who have been brought into possession of their souls. He concluded by urging them with great earnestness to decide at once for the better life. He then asked, "Will 500 men stand up and say 'I want to be saved?' He took the audience in sections and one after another stood up until over 150 had come forward. Mr. Jones said, "I have seen many men who have been brought into possession of their souls, and I have seen many men who have been brought into possession of their souls. He concluded by urging them with great earnestness to decide at once for the better life. He then asked, "Will 500 men stand up and say 'I want to be saved?' He took the audience in sections and one after another stood up until over 150 had come forward. Mr. Jones said, "I have seen many men who have been brought into possession of their souls, and I have seen many men who have been brought into possession of their souls. He concluded by urging them with great earnestness to decide at once for the better life. He then asked, "Will 500 men stand up and say 'I want to be saved?' He took the audience in sections and one after another stood up until over 150 had come forward. Mr. Jones said, "I have seen many men who have been brought into possession of their souls, and I have seen many men who have been brought into possession of their souls. He concluded by urging them with great earnestness to decide at once for the better life. He then asked, "Will 500 men stand up and say 'I want to be saved?' He took the audience in sections and one after another stood up until over 150 had come forward. Mr. Jones said, "I have seen many men who have been brought into possession of their souls, and I have seen many men who have been brought into possession of their souls. He concluded by urging them with great earnestness to decide at once for the better life. He then asked, "Will 500 men stand up and say 'I want to be saved?' He took the audience in sections and one after another stood up until over 150 had come forward. Mr. Jones said, "I have seen many men who have been brought into possession of their souls, and I have seen many men who have been brought into possession of their souls. He concluded by urging them with great earnestness to decide at once for the better life. He then asked, "Will 500 men stand up and say 'I want to be saved?' He took the audience in sections and one after another stood up until over 150 had come forward. Mr. Jones said, "I have seen many men who have been brought into possession of their souls, and I have seen many men who have been brought into possession of their souls. He concluded by urging them with great earnestness to decide at once for the better life. He then asked, "Will 500 men stand up and say 'I want to be saved?' He took the audience in sections and one after another stood up until over 150 had come forward. Mr. Jones said, "I have seen many men who have been brought into possession of their souls, and I have seen many men who have been brought into possession of their souls. He concluded by urging them with great earnestness to decide at once for the better life. He then asked, "Will 500 men stand up and say 'I want to be saved?' He took the audience in sections and one after another stood up until over 150 had come forward. Mr. Jones said, "I have seen many men who have been brought into possession of their souls, and I have seen many men who have been brought into possession of their souls. He concluded by urging them with great earnestness to decide at once for the better life. He then asked, "Will 500 men stand up and say 'I want to be saved?' He took the audience in sections and one after another stood up until over 150 had come forward. Mr. Jones said, "I have seen many men who have been brought into possession of their souls, and I have seen many men who have been brought into possession of their souls. He concluded by urging them with great earnestness to decide at once for the better life. He then asked, "Will 500 men stand up and say 'I want to be saved?' He took the audience in sections and one after another stood up until over 150 had come forward. Mr. Jones said, "I have seen many men who have been brought into possession of their souls, and I have seen many men who have been brought into possession of their souls. He concluded by urging them with great earnestness to decide at once for the better life. He then asked, "Will 500 men stand up and say 'I want to be saved?' He took the audience in sections and one after another stood up until over 150 had come forward. Mr. Jones said, "I have seen many men who have been brought into possession of their souls, and I have seen many men who have been brought into possession of their souls. He concluded by urging them with great earnestness to decide at once for the better life. He then asked, "Will 500 men stand up and say 'I want to be saved?' He took the audience in sections and one after another stood up until over 150 had come forward. Mr. Jones said, "I have seen many men who have been brought into possession of their souls, and I have seen many men who have been brought into possession of their souls. He concluded by urging them with great earnestness to decide at once for the better life. He then asked, "Will 500 men stand up and say 'I want to be saved?' He took the audience in sections and one after another stood up until over 150 had come forward. Mr. Jones said, "I have seen many men who have been brought into possession of their souls, and I have seen many men who have been brought into possession of their souls. He concluded by urging them with great earnestness to decide at once for the better life. He then asked, "Will 500 men stand up and say 'I want to be saved?' He took the audience in sections and one after another stood up until over 150 had come forward. Mr. Jones said, "I have seen many men who have been brought into possession of their souls, and I have seen many men who have been brought into possession of their souls. He concluded by urging them with great earnestness to decide at once for the better life. He then asked, "Will 500 men stand up and say 'I want to be saved?' He took the audience in sections and one after another stood up until over 150 had come forward. Mr. Jones said, "I have seen many men who have been brought into possession of their souls, and I have seen many men who have been brought into possession of their souls. He concluded by urging them with great earnestness to decide at once for the better life. He then asked, "Will 500 men stand up and say 'I want to be saved?' He took the audience in sections and one after another stood up until over 150 had come forward. Mr. Jones said, "I have seen many men who have been brought into possession of their souls, and I have seen many men who have been brought into possession of their souls. He concluded by urging them with great earnestness to decide at once for the better life. He then asked, "Will 500 men stand up and say 'I want to be saved?' He took the audience in sections and one after another stood up until over 150 had come forward. Mr. Jones said, "I have seen many men who have been brought into possession of their souls, and I have seen many men who have been brought into possession of their souls. He concluded by urging them with great earnestness to decide at once for the better life. He then asked, "Will 500 men stand up and say 'I want to be saved?' He took the audience in sections and one after another stood up until over 150 had come forward. Mr. Jones said, "I have seen many men who have been brought into possession of their souls, and I have seen many men who have been brought into possession of their souls. He concluded by urging them with great earnestness to decide at once for the better life. He then asked, "Will 500 men stand up and say 'I want to be saved?' He took the audience in sections and one after another stood up until over 150 had come forward. Mr. Jones said, "I have seen many men who have been brought into possession of their souls, and I have seen many men who have been brought into possession of their souls. He concluded by urging them with great earnestness to decide at once for the better life. He then asked, "Will 500 men stand up and say 'I want to be saved?' He took the audience in sections and one after another stood up until over 150 had come forward. Mr. Jones said, "I have seen many men who have been brought into possession of their souls, and I have seen many men who have been brought into possession of their souls. He concluded by urging them with great earnestness to decide at once for the better life. He then asked, "Will 500 men stand up and say 'I want to be saved?' He took the audience in sections and one after another stood up until over 150 had come forward. Mr. Jones said, "I have seen many men who have been brought into possession of their souls, and I have seen many men who have been brought into possession of their souls. He concluded by urging them with great earnestness to decide at once for the better life. He then asked, "Will 500 men stand up and say 'I want to be saved?' He took the audience in sections and one after another stood up until over 150 had come forward. Mr. Jones said, "I have seen many men who have been brought into possession of their souls, and I have seen many men who have been brought into possession of their souls. He concluded by urging them with great earnestness to decide at once for the better life. He then asked, "Will 500 men stand up and say 'I want to be saved?' He took the audience in sections and one after another stood up until over 150 had come forward. Mr. Jones said, "I have seen many men who have been brought into possession of their souls, and I have seen many men who have been brought into possession of their souls. He concluded by urging them with great earnestness to decide at once for the better life. He then asked, "Will 500 men stand up and say 'I want to be saved?' He took the audience in sections and one after another stood up until over 150 had come forward. Mr. Jones said, "I have seen many men who have been brought into possession of their souls, and I have seen many men who have been brought into possession of their souls. He concluded by urging them with great earnestness to decide at once for the better life. He then asked, "Will 500 men stand up and say 'I want to be saved?' He took the audience in sections and one after another stood up until over 150 had come forward. Mr. Jones said, "I have seen many men who have been brought into possession of their souls, and I have seen many men who have been brought into possession of their souls. He concluded by urging them with great earnestness to decide at once for the better life. He then asked, "Will 500 men stand up and say 'I want to be saved?' He took the audience in sections and one after another stood up until over 150 had come forward. Mr. Jones said, "I have seen many men who have been brought into possession of their souls, and I have seen many men who have been brought into possession of their souls. He concluded by urging them with great earnestness to decide at once for the better life. He then asked, "Will 500 men stand up and say 'I want to be saved?' He took the audience in sections and one after another stood up until over 150 had come forward. Mr. Jones said, "I have seen many men who have been brought into possession of their souls, and I have seen many men who have been brought into possession of their souls. He