If I get a favourable reply from Nicholls I will be back soon after the session opens. but I will probably allow the spate of oratory inseparable from the debate on the Address to subside before I cast eyes upon the Ottawa scene. Things are fairly prosperous in the U.S but not I think quite so prosperous as the papers would like to make out. When you next see Grattan get from him an account of an engaging scandal in which no less a person than William Randolph Hearst is implicated-I wrote him about it. You might let me know if anything develops about the Southam papers.

I hope you and yours are well and,

I am,

yours very sincerely,

John Stevenson
