

Still unpaid.

With regard to Mr. McQuaide's alleged claim, I inclose herewith ~~copy~~ a copy of an opinion given by the Solicitor of Indian Affairs on the 23rd Nov: 1871, in which he recommends that no patent shall issue to either Mr. McQuaide or Salmon's representatives or assigns, without the intervention of a decree of the Court of Chancery. Of this Mr. McQuaide was advised through his attorney Mr. John Stuart on the 25th Nov: 1871.

I have the honor to be,

Sir,

Your obed^t. Servant,

A. Macdougall

Deputy of the Minister of the Interior.
