

(b) service rendered during the period from September 1, 1961, to the time of the making of an election described in Section 12(6) during which contributions were not made to the pension plan by reason only of a refusal to contribute, shall be known as elective service if it was rendered by any person

(i) who was prevented as at August 31, 1961, only by reason of age or marital status from entering the Group Annuity Plan, and

(ii) who was less than sixty-five years of age on September 1, 1961, with the exception that if the person rendering such service is no longer in the service of the Corporation at the time he makes an election described in Section 12(6), and if the aggregate period of service rendered according to the provisions of (a) and (b) is less than ten years, such service shall not be known as elective service unless the person rendering such service received an immediate pension on ceasing to be employed by the Corporation in a position classified by the Corporation as "continuing". "

(5) The provisions hereof shall come into force on the first day of October 1966.

