

THE LADY WITH THE OTHER LAMP

CHAPTER XII

RESCUE WORK BROADENS

Mrs. Read Appointed to Charge of Rescue Work for Dominion—Captain Eva Booth's Courageous Work—"Miss Booth in Rags," in a Lecture at Massey Hall—Mrs. Read Opens Many New Homes—Sad Life Stories—Protection for the Feeble-Minded—Anniversary Meeting—Places of Evil in a Great CityPAGE 130

CHAPTER XIII

A CHAIN OF RESCUE HOMES

Major Read's Illness—Goes to England for Treatment—Sudden News of his Death—The Funeral Service—Tributes Paid by Comrades—Rescue Work in New Brunswick—Opening of "Evangeline" Home, St. John—A Tour of the West—Three Weeks in NewfoundlandPAGE 143

CHAPTER XIV

PUBLIC RECOGNITION OF RESCUE WORK

Public Meetings at Halifax and Other Places in Nova Scotia—A Western Fellow-Traveller Proposes Marriage—Mrs. Read Appointed Lieutenant-Colonel—Rescued Girls and their Memories of Home—Financing the Rescue Homes—The Little Child's Gift—"I Give Myself"—A Day's Routine—Sir Oliver Mowat's Appreciation—Type of Leaders in the Army—Vast Amount of Mrs. Read's Platform WorkPAGE 159

CHAPTER XV

CARING FOR HOMELESS WAIFS

Stories of Homeless Little Ones—Children's Shelter Established—The Street Arab and the Personal Touch—Gleams of HumorPAGE 183